dominated the country for most of the past century to something new A look at the current Parliament suggests that regionalism has become the most dominant and important cleavage in Canada Divided into four sections the text first examines different approaches to the study of regionalism It then moves on to the place of regionalism in Canadian society before turning towards regionalism s relationship to the Canadian party system The volume concludes with an examination of how Canada compare with the rest of the world in terms of the regionalsim of its parties and party systems      Directory of International Corporate Giving in America ,1993      Land, Growth & Politics John Melvin DeGrove,1984
