Public Participation in Democratic Governance in South Africa Gregory F. Houston, 2001 This book examines public participation in democratic governance in South Africa The South African democracy is fairly new giving rise to a variety of new channels and processes for public participation In addition the overwhelming majority of South Africans have little experience of democratic governance having only acquired political power for the first time in 1994 However more than seven years of universal suffrage and access to political power is ample justification for assessing the consolidation of democracy in this country The book focuses on four case studies of public participation interest group participation in the National Economic Development and Labour Council the participation of civil society and the legislatures in the formulation of the budget public participation in legislative processes and public participation in the integrated development planning processes of local government Each case study outlines a number of opportunities for and constraints to public participation in the processes of democratic governance Canada in the World Richard Albert, David R. The book is a critical examination and appraisal of the status methodology and likely future trends of the emerging sub discipline of Governing Development within the broader discipline of political science leading to the application of Good Governance in the administration and development of the newly emerged nations during the later half of the twentieth century

Subnational Foreign Relations in Africa Ohiocheoya Omiunu,Fritz Ikome Nganje,Ifeanyichukwu Azuka Aniyie,2026-02-18 This book offers a pioneering comparative analysis of the international relations of subnational governments SNGs in two of Africa s most influential geopolitical actors South Africa and Nigeria Using an interdisciplinary approach that draws from political science international relations and legal studies the book examines the motivations instruments institutional mechanisms and challenges shaping the external engagements of SNGs in these leading African economies Through case studies the book provides critical insights into how constitutional institutional and historical contexts influence subnational international relations from an African perspective Drawing on these findings the book argues that paradiplomacy in Africa is best understood through the lens of developmental paradiplomacy where socio economic imperatives rather than political autonomy drive subnational international engagement It demonstrates how the need for practical cooperation and the pursuit of local and regional economic development has been central to sustaining the international involvement of African SNGs a strategy born out of necessity rather than an expression of political self determination This book will be an essential resource for scholars policymakers and practitioners seeking to understand the role of subnational actors in global governance and African development offering fresh perspectives on the evolving landscape of international relations in the Global South The Canadian Forum ,1999-03 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 *G.K. Picard,2005 The State of the State breaks new ground by exploring political and socio economic issues about the nature of the South African state from the 1990s through the early 21st century Picard argues that the structural legacies of the apartheid state embedded in governmental planning bureaucratic and educational systems have a continuing impact on the new democratic government in South Africa The author argues that political and bureaucratic institutions are both important and limiting This book will appeal to a wide readership ranging from students of history politics and policy at undergraduate and postgraduate level to professionals studying public administration and management It should also appeal to practitioners in the field and to people interested more broadly in the history of the state in South Africa and the nature of the transition which took place in the 1990s BOOK JACKET Provincial Government in South Africa ,2001 Canadian Periodical Index ,2000 Bibliographie Internationale de Science Politique ,2000 Info Source Canada,2005 International African Bibliography ,2005 Report to Heads of Government by the Commonwealth Secretary-General Commonwealth Secretariat,1995 Guide to Funding for International and Foreign Programs ,2004
