Theosophy is a religion established in the United States during the late 19th century It was founded primarily by the Russian Helena Blavatsky and draws its teachings predominantly from Blavatsky's writings Categorized by scholars of religion as both a new religious movement and as part of the occultist stream of Western esotericism it draws upon both older European philosophies such as Neoplatonism and Asian religions such as Hinduism and Buddhism At a meeting of the Miracle Club in New York City on 7 September 1875 Blavatsky Olcott and Judge agreed to establish an organisation with Charles Sotheman suggesting that they call it the Theosophical Society Prior to adopting the name Theosophical they had debated various potential names among them the Egyptological Society the Hermetic Society and the Rosicrucian Society The term was not new but had been previously used in various contexts by the Philaletheians and the Christian mystic Jakob Böhme

Etymologically the term came from the Greek theos god's and sophia wisdom thus meaning god wisdom divine wisdom or wisdom of God The term theosophia appeared in both Greek and Latin in the works of early church fathers as a synonym for theology In her book The Key to Theosophy Blavatsky said that the term Theosophy had been coined by the Alexandrian philosophers especially Ammonius Saccas Contents H.
