Will Also Find Them Intellectually Stimulating The Fiction of Doris Lessing Ratna Raman, 2021-04-30 Doris Lessing 1919 2013 a prolific contemporary author was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2007 for her life work Examining five decades of Lessing s unique life narrative strategies and the literary traditions that she drew upon and improvised this book highlights her extraordinary significance as a writer of our times and for our times Lessing s fiction and non fiction provide a seminal understanding of the key issues that shaped the twentieth century Autodidactic and keenly interested in the world around her Lessing flagged the problems of racism in Africa the inequity of class in modern England the limitations of white middle class women s movements that overlooked the rights of women across race and class the marginalisation of individuals the horror of nuclear war and the need for disarmament and the hazardous global expansion in the face of unrelenting technological progress Further she raised the concern of the atomisation of modern families violence and the urgent need for alternate modes of viewing voicing anxieties decades ahead of other contemporary writers Making futuristic projections through innumerable genres of writing such as realistic narratives memoirs diaries and science fiction Lessing examines myth psychoanalysis and Marxist perspectives engaging with a gamut of experiences that have defined modernity and sets up feminist blueprints that challenge atrophying patriarchal hegemonies Doris Lessing G. Schuring, C. Bosker, 1995 FUTURE EDUCATION IN TEACHING AND LEARNING Dr. P. Muthukumar, Dr. A.R.S. Kannan, Dr. K. Malini, This edited book focuses on the possible education responses that can be implemented in future education The impact of technology on learning and teaching is often at the forefront of demands particularly from those who dictate the funding available to pay for technology within education systems This is not an unreasonable request and there is merit in impact of multidisciplinary approach will reshape the future of education to provide efficient learning teaching experiences and assessments Furthermore the book discusses multidisciplinary and psychology of teaching and learning approaches e g Cognitive metacognitive and English language learning that can be applied in this rapid moving multidisciplinary education Particularly new multidisciplinary approach learning to provide effective learning experience resulting in better learning outcomes not only their own learning but other also Future education should not solely focus on technology and psychology but also on the applied multidisciplinary approach as well as the human touch to maintain authentic and effective learning experience The book also discusses how teaching and learning can be intended to meet the growing tendency of future education in multidisciplinary This book aims to establish itself through the published books textbooks and research as a medium to provide guidelines and recommendations for different stakeholders including policy makers educational designers teachers and students on how to enhance both learning and teaching experiences in the future for better learning outcomes as well as how to maintain in future education It also provides one step ahead towards future education to prepare different stakeholders for the rapid evolution of education even in times of critical situations The Grass is Singing by Doris Lessing Lea Partridge, 1983 The Grass is Singing , 1996 Doris Lessing and Sufi Equilibrium S. Fahim, 1994-07-12 The purpose of this study is to examine the rationale of Doris Lessing's development from Classical Realism to mysticism and forms of science fiction and to consider the unifying motifs that appear throughout her novels in her consistent search for Sufi Equilibrium. The four novels selected in this study represent significant stages in Lessing's work. Chapter one focuses on The Grass is Singing which represents the author's early traditionally realistic writing to show how far the preoccupations of Lessing's later novels find expression in this early work. Chapter two studies The Golden Notebook which marks a turning point in formal structure in Lessing's canon and is selected as evidence of her interest in Sufism at that early stage. Chapter three concentrates on the study of The Memoirs of a Survivor which has elicited a comparatively limited amount of criticism but which proves to be a major achievement when brought into line with Sufi methods of writing. Chapter four considers Lessing's science fiction series Canopus in Argos tracing sources from Oriental literature, a key which unlocks many areas of obscurity.

Diversity in Narration and Writing Kornélia Horváth, Judit Mudriczki, Sarolta Osztrólczyk, 2022-01-10. The essays in this volume focus on different prose and audiovisual narratives and their academic and cultural significance as seen in the twenty-first century. Their diverse interpretations of the novel as a genre provide a current academic overview on the variety of interpretive cultures and traditions. Divided into three sections, the book consciously takes an international perspective in both narrative theory and novel studies in order to deepen the reader's understanding of classic American and European authors including Gustave Flaubert, Lewis Carroll, James Joyce, Doris Lessing, Jack London, J. M. Coetzee, and David Lodge. In addition, it also offers a profound contribution to international scholarship as it covers works of classic and contemporary Hungarian and Central European writers that have not been discussed in English before. With its unprecedented insights into the depth and diversity of narrative prose traditions, the book will inspire innovative approaches to the concept of the novel in European academic criticism today.
