Teaching the Faith, Forming the Faithful Gary A. Parrett, S. Steve Kang, 2009-10-16 With the decline of traditional Sunday school and education programs in recent years many Christians have not learned the fundamental doctrinal content of the faith In this text Gary Parrett and Steve Kang set forth a thoroughly biblical vision for intentional teaching of the Christian faith that attends to both the content and process of educational and formational ministries Aging Together Susan H. McFadden, John T. McFadden, 2014-03-15 Drawing on medicine social science philosophy and religion to provide a broad perspective on aging Aging Together offers a vision of relationships filled with love joy and hope in the face of a condition that all too often elicits anxiety hopelessness and despair The Clergy in Early Modern Scotland Michelle D.

Brock, 2021 From the early percolation of Protestant thought in the sixteenth century through to the controversies and upheaval of the civil wars in the seventeenth century the clergy were at the heart of religious change in Scotland By exploring their lived experiences and drawing upon historical theological and literary approaches the essays here paint a fresh and vibrant portrait of ministry during the kingdom's long Reformation The contributors investigate how clergy as well as their families and flocks experienced and negotiated religious social and political change through examination of both wider themes and individual case studies the chapters emphasise the flexibility of local decision making and how ministers and their families were enmeshed in parish dynamics while also highlighting the importance of clerical networks beyond the parish What emerges is a ministry that despite the increasing professionalisation of the role maintained a degree of local autonomy and agency The volume thus refocuses attention on the early modern European ministry offering a multifaceted and historically attuned understanding of those who stood at the forefront of Protestant reform The Graying of the

Grey Spaces Jeffrey W. Driver, 2022-11-22 Churches around the world have been confronted by shame and culpability in widespread revelations of child sexual abuse In this book Jeffrey Driver who has served the Australian Anglican Church as both a diocesan bishop and archbishop explores some of the underlying cultural and theological influences that may have predisposed the possibility of abuse as well as the defensiveness and cover ups that sometimes followed The first responses of most churches to the revelations of abuse were of necessity mostly structural and programmatic Recognizing the institutional temptation to do only enough to settle a crisis Jeffrey Driver calls for something different from the churches Drawing on the imagery of Holy Saturday he encourages a deeper journey of reflection and change for churches and church leaders to linger reflectively in the grey spaces of loss and shame long enough to hear the voice of God addressing them through the vulnerable and the wounded once more calling the church back to itself and into a deeper humbler relationship with the world it is called to serve
