crash landed on a small island in the dark He had frostbitten fingers and was 300 miles from the closest village With unimaginable good fortune eight days later he ran across an oil tanker and hitched a ride south He had survived marking one of the most notable solo crossings in history but the failure of the second portion of the trip he had originally planned haunted him In 2004 Foster returned to northern Labrador with his then girlfriend now wife Kristin Nelson Launching from Kuujjuaq in Northern Quebec the couple paddled the Ungava Bay coast which has one of the largest tidal variances in the world to the place Foster had boarded the oil tanker 23 years earlier From this remote location the couple completed the trip to Nain that Foster originally planned for 1981 They encountered more polar bears than people The story of the two trips forms the backbone for On Polar Tides Originally self published as Stepping Stones in 2009 which offers an intimate and insightful view of Ungava and Labrador The new revised edition includes gripping recollections of the polar adventures and
