Power to the People Laura Ingraham, 2007-08-14 In her latest radio personality and author, Ingraham Shut up and Sing calls on the American people to take back the phrase Power to the People from the anti-establishment groups of yesterday that today have made the country, according to Ingraham, a slave to fringe groups, political correctness, expanding bureaucracies, and our own consumerism. Taking an approach that makes mutually exclusive groups out of those working and taking care of their families and the protest culture, Ingraham's message is loud and clear: they're coming for you. Specifically, they mean the Lifetime network, brainwashing women to swear off men and family, the growing ranks of Team Atheist including Dan Brown, family deconstructivists, illegal immigrants, and Islamic jihadists, among others. Chapters cover most of today's hot button topics: the war in Iraq, homeland security, the judiciary, the news media, and global warming, with attitude and conviction. Ingraham's commentary on the lack of education in our schools and the pornification of the culture contain her most sound, articulate arguments, bolstered by a wealth of statistics, but Ingraham's assembling tactics are overzealous. Still, fans of her strident radio show should be pleased to find more of the same here.

Weigart, 2008 Teaching is a profession which is so enormous and so packed with significance that the issues related to it have a consistently high ranking with members of society in virtually every public opinion poll. These issues include multicultural education, teacher training and accreditation, burn out, teaching under conditions particular to a certain country, worldwide student behaviour and preparation, computers in the classroom, parental influence on the teaching process, the changing curriculum, and its meaning for teaching, budgetary problems, and a multitude of similar issues. This new book presents issues current to the teaching and education.
