Something Deep Within Me Roars Troy A. Atterberry,2005-07-01 Something Deep Within Me Roars is not just a collection of my poetry It s some of my deepest inner most personal and private thoughts feelings and emotions Writing it was an emotional journey for me sometimes returning my emotions to places I thought I had long left behind I often contemplated some of the contents of this book Whether or not I should allow some of the poems I choose to be in it actually be in it After countless mental matches of wrestling with these thoughts I came to the conclusion that my thoughts and feelings are what they are And in truth I can t alter them to appease someone else s appetite These are my experiences my feelings my thoughts lessons I have learned and the life I call my own In this book I open my soul to you and allow you dwell into the depths of me So welcome to the core of what makes me what I am Welcome to the place deep within me where something roars     *Catalogue of prints and drawings in the British museum.
