English Alive Jan Cousens,Peter Stanley,Luke Jackson,Catherine Reid,2006 English Alive 3 is the centrepiece of a groundbreaking program for English in the Middle Years The program focuses strongly on reading and writing and on associated thinking skills and strategies Beginning with the premise that Middle Years students need to be engaged and stimulated before they can learn effectively the program recognises that students learn in different ways and draw on multiple intelligences English Alive 3 is designed to encourage deep learning students investigate a knowledge area in many layers so that they build deep understanding and develop a range of skills Reading and writing are taught through a thematic workshop approach using high interest texts and activities that really teach students the how of literary everyday and visual texts The Jacaranda fiction series is also part of the program This provides both motivated and reluctant readers with stimulating fiction some with SOSE Humanities HSIE links The titles the the series are suitable as set texts or for literature circles and wide reading programs Bouquet of Good-Byes Carole Gift Page,1992 As her high school graduation approaches Kasey wonders what God has in store for her unaware that two sisters separated decades ago in a Nazi prison camp will soon change her destiny Perfect Beat ,2004 Popular Music, 1920-1979 Nat Shapiro,Bruce Pollock,1985 An annotated index of over 18 000 American popular songs cumulating and updating eight volumes of Popular Music and including introductory essays lyricists and composers index important performances index awards index and list of publishers No Depression ,2002 The Boston Globe Index ,2002 The Washington Post Index ,2009 The Absolute Sound ,2008 Evolution of Rāga and Tāla in Indian Music Madura Ramaswami Gautam,1989 Business Review Weekly ,2002 Post-colonial Distances Beverley Diamond,Denis Crowdy,Daniel Mark Downes,2008 This anthology emanated from a conference in St John TM s Newfoundland that brought together popular music scholars folklorists and ethnomusicologists from Canada and Australia Implicit in that conference and in this anthology is the comparability of the two countries Their post colonial TM status if that is indeed an appropriate modifier in either case has some points of similarity On the other hand their distance TM from hegemonic centres from colonial histories is arguably more a matter of contrast than similarity Canada and Australia are similar in various regards Post colonial in the sense that they are both former British colonies they now each have more than a century of stature as nation states By the beginning of the 21st century they are each modest in size but rich in ethnocultural diversity Nonetheless each country has some skeletons in the closet where openness to difference to indigenous and new immigrant groups are concerned Both countries are similarly both experiencing rapid shifts in cultural makeup with the biggest population increases in Australia coming from China India and South Africa and the biggest in Canada from Afro Caribbean South Asian countries and China The chapters in this anthology constitute an important comparative initiative Perhaps the most obvious point of comparison is that both countries create commercial music in the shadow of the hegemonic US and British industries As the authors demonstrate both proximity specifically Canada TM s nearness to the US and distance have advantages and disadvantages As the third and fourth largest Anglophone music markets for popular music they face similar issues relating to music management performance markets and production A second relationship as chapters in this anthology attest is the significant movement between the two countries in a matrix of exchange and influence among musicians that has rarely been studied hitherto Third both countries invite comparison with regard to the popular music production of diverse social groups within their national populations In particular the tremendous growth of indigenous popular music has resulted in opportunities as well as challenges Additionally however the strategies that different waves of immigrants have adopted to devise or localize popular music that was both competitive and meaningful to their own people as well as to a larger demographic bear comparison The historical similarities and differences as well as the global positionality of each country in the early 21st century then invites comparison relating to musical practices social organization lyrics as they articulate social issues career strategies industry structures and listeners The Music News ,1939
