MacDonald,1985 On December 16 1944 the vanguard of three German armies totaling half a million men attacked U S forces in the Ardennes region of Belgium and Luxembourg achieving what had been considered impossible total surprise In the most abysmal failure of battlefield intelligence in the history of the U S Army 600 000 American soldiers found themselves facing Hitler s last desperate effort of the war The brutal confrontation that ensued became known as the Battle of the Bulge the greatest battle ever fought by the U S Army a triumph of American ingenuity and dedication over an egregious failure in strategic intelligence A Time for Trumpets is the definitive account of this dramatic victory told by one of America s most respected military historians who was also an eyewitness MacDonald commanded a rifle company in the Battle of the Bulge His account of this unique battle is exhaustively researched honestly recounted and movingly authentic in its depiction of hand to hand combat Mingling firsthand experience with the insights of a distinguished historian MacDonald places this profound human drama unforgettably on the landscape of history Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved      Naval War College Review Naval War College (U.S.),1978      A History of the Modern World Robert Roswell Palmer,1992 Considers the history of the making of the modern world since 1500 This text places Europe and the European civilization in its international setting and considers individual nations from the perspective of their points of contact with a larger civilization      Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1979      Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1978      The New York Times Book Review ,1977-07 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback      Current Book Review Citations ,1981      Beyond Stalingrad Dana V. Sadarananda,1990-06-26 This study fills a void in the military history of World War II by focusing attention upon individual battles and operations on the Eastern Front a subject largely neglected in the literature Basing his study on in depth analysis of contemporary war diaries author Dana Sadarananda examines Field Marshal Erich von Manstein s conduct of operations as the commander of the German Army Group Don from November 1942 March 1943 Sadarananda traces the course of the Winter campaign of 1942 43 the aftermath of the Soviet counteroffensive that trapped the German 6th Army in the city of Stalingrad and illuminates the reasons why the Army Group Don was able to achieve a dramatic reversal of fortune and enable the German Army to regain the initiative along the critical Eastern Front He concludes that the German successes during the period in question were largely due to the perceptive and decisive leadership of Field Marshal von Manstein Sadarananda demonstrates that the battles that Manstein directed during the winter of 1942 43 were among the most critical of the entire war In fact he shows failure to succeed would have meant the collapse of the entire Eastern front and an earlier victory for the Allies Piecing together the course of the campaign Sadarananda identifies four distinct phases of the operations beginning in November 1942 when the 4th Panzer Army aborted its relieve drive on Stalingrad and culminating in the elimination of Russian forces and the German recapture of the Donets River line Throughout the author analyzes Manstein s military decisions as well as his relationship with Hitler during a period in which the German leader s behavior was characterized by uncertainty and indecision Sadarananda argues that Manstein s genius was not only his ability to anticipate enemy moves but also his effectiveness in dealing with Hitler
