The Hour:

The Hour Before the Dawn. An Appeal to Men Hour, Josephine Elizabeth Butler, 1876 Tory Horrors or the Question of the Hour. A letter to the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, M.P. On his pamphlet "Bulgarian Horrors." Alfred Austin, 1876

Farewell But Whenever You Welcome the Hour Theodore T. Barker, 1849 Night-time and Sleep in Asia and the West Lodewijk Brunt, Brigitte Steger, 2004-06-01 Ideas and practices concerning sleep and night time are constantly changing and widely varied in different cultures and societies. What we do during the day and night is the result of much political struggle. Trade unions, political parties, entrepreneurs, leaders and schools boards all have an interest in questions of timing for the opening and closing of shops, the starting hours of schools and factories, and the number of hours people have to work and sleep. By drawing together comparative case studies from countries in both Asia and Europe, Night-time and Sleep in Asia and the West allows the reader to track the differences in the cultural importance given to the night and to compare the ways in which the challenges and opportunities of modernity have been played out in the East and the West.

Federal Register, 1983-08-08 The Humility of Being Found Kevin Cain, 2019-11-19 The need to be rescued is somewhat about personal incompleteness and mostly about God who desires to have loving communion with creation. Spiritual rescue follows a simple pattern. Messiah is lovingly sent to rescue each. Has a tendency to fight against the Rescuer. Personal humility is a statement of faithful surrender and the key to being found. The greatest journey of rescue is Jesus' Messiah's upper room to empty tomb victory over sin and death. Now rescued, the individual's only responsibility is to bear the Christ Who bears our wounds. Such is the journey to rescue. In The Humility of Being Found: A Journey To Rescue, Kevin B. Cain writes: Please acknowledge deep within every soul there is division from and longing for communion with the One larger than ourselves and with brothers and sisters in the struggle of life. Every division requires rescue and the eternal estrangement of people from the God Who loves them necessitates the greatest of rescues. And so whether we realize or not, each of us sets out on a journey to discover rescue. Thousands of years ago, Messiah did the same. God descended into a journey not to be rescued but to offer rescue. The apostle Paul says: Messiah's journey to rescue each of us can be summed up in three words: death, burial, and resurrection. Whether the individual's journey to be rescued is active or passive, Jesus' journey of death, burial, and resurrection has brought rescue to all. You are now being invited to enter thirty six hours from my personal journal. In the pages that follow, you will read my chronicling of Jesus' Upper Room to empty tomb journey of rescue and my attempt through vigil to journey alongside creation's Rescuer. In the written testimony of my journey to be rescued and my stumbling over the Messianic leaf of God's rescue that follows, perhaps you too will stumble, welcome rescue and rise.
