Southeast Asia In The New Century:

Development and Challenge Tai-Chee Wong, Mohan Singh, 1999 As Southeast Asia sheds its colonial vest its development and transformation into young nation states pick up momentum as globalization and technology become the backdrop of the new millennium Some of the most crucial issues confronting Southeast Asia today are addressed in this volume as ASEAN takes stock of its achievements after three decades and recaptures its vision for the new millennium The post colonial era in the region signaled a reconceptualization of geographical space as Southeast Asian countries established themselves territorially and harnessed their energies to work collectively in the new global equation This led to formation of organizations such as ASEAN AFTA and the economic growth triangles which represent a clear Southeast Asian voice internationally Paradoxically development in Southeast Asia brings new challenges as globalization and new economic trends lead to intensive intra regional population movements the rise of megacities the search to resolve Southeast Asia in the New Century Samuel C. Y. Ku, 2002 An examination of the development of Southeast Asia in the new century from different perspectives as the various contributing authors explore and discuss the opportunities and challenges facing it While several articles are in the discipline of political science there are also articles from the perspectives of economics education and political economy Southeast Asia in a New Era Rodolfo C Severino, Elspeth Thomson, Mark Hong, 2010 This book is about Southeast Asia in a new era This new era began with a new century and a new millennium posing great challenges to the region and to each country in it It has a chapter on each of the ten countries in the region covering both the politics and the economic aspects It has one on the region as a whole and one on the Association of Southeast Asian Nations It has a thoughtful afterword that is a summary of its contents but is more than the sum of the individual chapters Many books and chapters of books have been written on Southeast Asia usually by external observers Aside from being up to date this book is different from most of them in several ways Most of the chapters are written by Southeast Asians indeed most of the country chapters are written by natives of those countries This means that the perspectives are based on local insights which provide nuance and sensitivity The book is addressed primarily to the young people of Southeast Asia so that they can get to know their neighbours better Each chapter has a guide to further reading and a series of questions to provoke further research and deeper inquiry publisher The Dragon Looks South Bronson Percival, 2007-06-30 China has made extraordinarily rapid gains in Southeast Asia since it turned its old confrontational policy on its head in 1997 The Dragon Looks South focuses closely on the past five years and is a comprehensive work that reviews all aspects of China's relations with all Southeast Asian states Percival also distinguishes between China's goals in mainland and maritime Southeast Asia deals with all of the major external players in Southeast Asia not just China and the United States and contends that various international relations schools of thought may or may not be relevant to Chinese Southeast Asian relationships Southeast Asia in the Early Modern Era Anthony Reid, 1993 The papers in this volume grew out of a conference sponsored by the Joint Committee on Southeast Asia of the Social Science Research Council and the American Council of Learned Societies Without dustcover text clean condition good

Southeast Asia Thomas R. Leinbach, Richard Ulack, 2000 The Great Depression hit Americans hard but none harder than African Americans and the working poor This brief engaging book covers the range of African Americans experiences during the 1930s Cheryl Lynn Greenberg explores employment issues the New Deal's effect on African Americans family and community changes and how the coming of war affected the population The book straddles the particular with examinations of specific communities and experiences and the general with explorations of the broader effects of racism discrimination family class and political organizing

Asian Urbanization in the New Millennium Gayl D. Ness, Prem P. Talwar, 2005 This book brings together a concise statement of the process of urbanisation in 19 Asian countries from Pakistan through Japan It will present data on urbanisation for the past half century with projections for the next quarter century Each chapter is written by a recognised scholar on Asian urban and population dynamics Since the book will provide a basic set of comparable data for all countries and reflections on both the benefits and problems of urbanisation written by some of the region's best analysts the editors believe it will be of wide interest to scholars and urban administrators throughout the region It will also provide the basic statement on Asian urbanisation that will be relevant and in demand for the near future The book is sponsored by the Asian Urban Information Center of Kobe AUICK which has sponsored comparative research and training on Asian urban issues since 1989
