The Mentally Handicapped Child Brian Herbert Kirman,1973      Caring for the Mentally Handicapped Child David Wilkin,2016-01-08 First published in 1979 this book concerns itself primarily with the mothers of mentally handicapped children It discusses the problems of assistance that they may have experienced from their families the community or the available services Whilst arguing for far more support for mothers when they are the main carer this book also suggests reasons why some families are more easily able to cope with the problems of caring for severely handicapped children This study is based on research that was conducted for and funded by the Department of Health and Social Security between 1973 and 1976      Parents and Young Mentally Handicapped Children Helen McConachie,2016-01-08 First published in 1986 this book reviews research on the role parents play in fostering the early development of children with mental handicaps Professionals and parents must work together to give such children the chance of living as ordinary lives as possible and here the author develops a broadly based conceptual framework for the involvement of parents as teachers of their young handicapped children McConachie identifies characteristics of parents which seem of particular relevance to the design and success of intervention programmes Although written in the 1980s this book discusses topics that are still important today      Stress in Families with a Mentally Handicapped Child A.
