Buying Respectability Thomas Adam,2009-04-01 In 19th century Leipzig Toronto New York and Boston a newly emergent group of industrialists and entrepreneurs entered into competition with older established elite groups for social recognition as well as cultural and political leadership The competition was played out on the field of philanthropy with the North American community gathering ideas from Europe about the establishment of cultural and public institutions For example to secure financing for their new museum the founders of the Metropolitan Museum of Art organized its membership and fundraising on the model of German art museums The process of cultural borrowing and intercultural transfer shaped urban landscapes with the building of new libraries museums and social housing projects An important contribution to the relatively new field of transnational history this book establishes philanthropy as a prime example of the conversion of economic resources into social and cultural capital

The Architecture of McKim, Mead, and White Allan Greenberg,Michael George,2013-06-21 For forty years 1880 1920 the now legendary architectural firm led by Charles Follen McKim William Rutherford Mead and Stanford White was responsible for many of the finest buildings in America The Boston Public Library Pennsylvania Station in New York and the campus of Columbia University are among the national landmarks designed by these men and their partners Bert Fenner and William Mitchell Kendall This anthology of plans elevations and details of major works of McKim Mead and White is an invaluable reference source and inspiration for the student of architecture As Allan Greenberg writes in his introduction The legacy of McKim Mead and White is so vast that both its outer boundaries and its inner characteristics are only barely discernible As architects of some of the most important buildings in the history of American architecture the work of the office of McKim Mead and White reached a level of quality which has never been equaled by any large office before or after Charles Follen McKim cofounded the firm with William Rutherford Mead in 1878 along with his brother in law William B Bigelow One year later Bigelow left the firm and was replaced by young Stanford White Among the commissions that McKim worked on were the Villard Houses the Boston Public Library the Chicago World s Fair Columbian Exposition and the Agriculture Building the Columbia University campus Symphony Hall in Boston alterations to the White House the Pierpont Morgan Library Pennsylvania Station and the University Club in New York Stanford White who ironically had replaced Charles McKim at the firm of Gambrill and Richardson in New York joined the partnership in September 1879 A young enthusiastic man who could draw like a house afire in the words of McKim White
