- James' dedication to his work is evident in his commitment to his library. But this dedication is not just about the books on the shelves. It's about the people who use them. It's about the stories that are told, and the lives that are changed. It's about the power of knowledge, and the responsibility that comes with it. It's about the future, and the hope that it holds. It's about the world, and the place that we all call home.
