The Of Man:

The Descent of Man, and Selection in Relation to Sex ... Second Edition, Revised and Augmented, with Illustrations. Tenth Thousand Charles Darwin, 1874 The Son of Man in Myth and History Frederick Houk Borsch, 2007-03-01 Borsch has not answered all the questions of course Who can But his view of the Man tradition makes more sense to me than for example Perrin's rather cavalier dismissal of the evidence and it not only enlightens but also enlivens the discussion As against the extreme skeptics Borsch is also convincing to me in arguing the case for a large measure of authenticity in the Son of man tradition in the Gospels If the proof of the pudding is in the eating the book constantly calls me back to its pages for insight regarding the problem both in its historical dimension and in its bearing upon the meaning of Jesus of Nazareth for faith today Theology The author is well aware of the difficulties involved in entering a field wherein so much investigation has been done And of this with the positive and negative conclusions he gives an excellent survey crisp and critical The lines opened up will engage the attention of a new and more positive chapter in the form critical argument London Quarterly and Holborn Review Frederick H Borsch is the retired Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles and Professor of New Testament and Chair of Anglican Studies at The Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia He is also the former Dean of the Chapel at Princeton University His other books include The Spirit Searches Everything Keeping Life's Questions The Bible's Authority in Today's Church Introducing the Lessons of the Church Year A Guide for Lay Readers and Congregations and The Christian and Gnostic Son of Man Hades; or, the Intermediate state of man Henry CONSTABLE (Chaplain of the City of London Hospital for Diseases of the Chest.), 1873 The Origin of Civilisation and the Primitive Condition of Man Sir John Lubbock, 1882 God in History; Or, The Progress of Man's Faith in the Moral Order of the World Christian Carl Josias von Baron Bunsen, 1868 MAN'S PLACE IN THE COSMOS Andrew Seth Pringle-Pattison, 1897 God-Man. ... chest for these are all in themselves entire parts and there are other diverse parts belonging to them All those parts that do not subdivide into parts uniform with themselves are composed of parts that do so subdivide for instance hand is composed of flesh sinews and bones Of animals some resemble one another in all their parts while others have parts wherein they differ Sometimes the parts are identical in form or species as for instance one man s nose or eye resembles another man s nose or eye flesh flesh and bone bone and in like manner with a horse and with all other animals which we reckon to be of one and the same species for as the whole is to the whole so each to each are the parts severally In other cases the parts are identical save only for a difference in the way of excess or defect as is the case in such animals as are of one and the same genus By genus I mean for instance Bird or Fish for each of these is subject to difference in respect of its genus and there are many species of fishes and of birds
