The Old Lamplighters:

The Old Lamplighters Wally Kennicutt, Richard Saunders Pittman, 1993 The Lamplighters of the Phoenix Park
James Flanagan, Frank Flanagan, Donal Fallon, 2023-10-19 The Phoenix Park in Dublin holds a special place in the collective memory of Irish people. From the assassinations of 1882 and the destruction of several imperial monuments to the arrival of Douglas Hyde as Ireland's first president and Pope John Paul's 1979 visit, it has been at the centre of Irish society for centuries. But the park is also part and parcel of daily life for many Dubliners, none more so than the Flanagan family who have been lighting the gas lamps within its walls since 1890. Here historian Donal Fallon speaks to brothers Frank and James Flanagan, lamplighters of the park, to give us a snapshot of a fading tradition and a unique history of one of Ireland's most beloved places. With stunning photographs, historical events and personal stories, The Lamplighters of the Phoenix Park shines a light on the park at the centre of our national identity through the prism of this singular family whose histories have been intertwined for more than 150 years.

Martinez, 2014-05-27 In I'll Be Damned if I'll Die in Oakland popular Los Angeles Times columnist and world traveler Al Martinez takes us on a funny, crazy, surprising, and sometimes poignant ride around the globe with his wife, the ebullient Cinelli, and then with his children, his grandchildren, and once his perplexing dog, Barney, scattering love, laughter, and memories all along the way. We journey with them from Africa to China, Greece to Italy, Spain to Austria and beyond, and across the U.S. on a three-month trip from the Pacific to the Atlantic and back again, with Barney barking all the way. It's a trip through time as well as space as the family grows and the world changes. It's a ride you'll never want to forget.
