Franz Dünzl,2007-08-30 Franz D nzl gives an account of the formation of the doctrine of the Trinity in a narrative based on contemporary sources as he remarks in the preface he wants to describe the human struggle over the truth of the Christian image of God and as far as possible let the early Christians speak for themselves His main concern is to describe the dynamic of the disputes over the theology of the Trinity in a vivid way which is easy to follow pointing out the foundations of the doctrine and the decisive shifts in its development He tries to see the often bitter discussion not as a barren dispute but as an evolutionary process in which the rivalry is a necessary and positive factor in moving the debate forward After an introduction to the problem the book describes the beginning of christology and the first models of the relationship between Father and Son it then describes the controversies leading up to the Council of Nicaea which are discussed at length going on to show how Nicaea didn t settle the question and continuing the account up to the Council of Constantinople in 381 It brings out the political influences which governed this second stage of the discussion in an illuminating way A survey and bibliography round the book off The Cambridge Review ,1885 Vols 1 26 include a supplement The University pulpit vols 1 26 no 1 661 which has separate pagination but is indexed in the main vol Prize essay ... Stannus, 2016-10-18 Excerpt from A History of the Origin of the Doctrine of the Trinity in the Christian Church With an Introduction and Appendix There is an increasing belief that the creeds generally accepted among the Churches differ very widely from the statements of the Sacred Volume and from the doctrines which were common in the first period of the Christian Church On no question is this more striking than on that which refers to the Unity of God While there is not the slightest hint in the Old Testament or the New of a plurality Of persons in the Godhead the doctrine of a Triune deity is spoken of at the present time and has been for ages as a fundamental doctrine of the Christian faith About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Hunting,2023-11-30 This important work is a detailed biblical investigation of the relationship of Jesus to the one God of Israel The authors challenge the notion that biblical monotheism is legitimately represented by a Trinitarian view of God and demonstrate that within the bounds of the canon of Scripture Jesus is confessed as Messiah Son of God but not God Himself Later Christological developments beginning in the second century misrepresented the biblical doctrine of God and Christ by altering the terms of the biblical presentation of the Father and Son This fateful development laid the foundation of a revised unscriptural creed that needs to be challenged This book is likely to be a definitive presentation of a Christology rooted as it originally was in the Hebrew Bible The authors present a sharply argued appeal for an understanding of God and Jesus in the context of the original Christian documents For additional information visit the author s website at www.restorationfellowship.org
