

1949...
a neat time
to be young!
— to be a McCulloch!

especially when your Dad owned the town,
the county and half the state.

When your brothers were cool as they come
and your sister was the cutest chick
for miles around.

It was a great time!

...Then it all
began to happen!

The McCullochs:

Barholm Castle Janet Brennan-Inglis, 2025-07-17 In 1999 Barholm Castle in Galloway had lain ruinous and derelict for over two hundred years when Janet Brennan Inglis and her husband John bought it as a restoration project. Together with a team of architects, surveyors and builders overseen by Historic Scotland they turned this sixteenth century tower house into a domestic residence once again this time with central heating, bathrooms and a twenty first century kitchen. Since the restoration they have researched the history of Barholm Castle and the McCulloch family who owned it; the stories they uncovered and the account of the painstaking restoration of Barholm Castle are told in this book. Having restored the tower, Janet and John turned their attention to the ground around it and set about developing a very special garden landscape. The third part of the book describes the process of transforming the wild area surrounding the castle into a series of mature gardens providing a colourful and dramatic setting for the castle.

Dressmakers, Preachers and Cockies Jeremy Ward, 2018 In 2014 Jeremy Ward found himself the sole survivor of his immediate family. Intrigued by why he had not embraced the Christian faith of his parents as had his two sisters and left with family records cluttering his study, Jeremy decided to write the story of his parents and their forebears. Dressmakers, Preachers and Cockies is the result. In part a response to his desire to record his family history, in part a search for meaning in his own life, Dressmakers, Preachers and Cockies tells of his mother's family of McCullochs from County Westmeath in Ireland, his father's family of Wards and Robjohns from south west England and his Italian great grandmother from Gibraltar. Jeremy delves into this history identifying themes of religious faith, commitment to family and the importance of education and community service as he searches for influences in his own life. He writes of dissenting Congregationalists farming in the NSW Riverina, a family firm of dressmakers in Sydney, his mother as young Rector's wife, his father as World War 2 RAAF chaplain and a family connection with Joseph Conrad. Finally, Jeremy describes his experiences as a child of the rectory attending boarding school and conscription into the Army before becoming a legal aid lawyer and disability advocate.

Letters to a Critic Rodney James, 2023-11-14 Described as arguably the most influential Australian art critic of the last half of the twentieth century, Alan McCulloch's work as illustrator, critic, gallery director and author reflected on and documented much of this era of visual art in Australia. As critic for the Melbourne Herald from 1951 to 1982, McCulloch was fundamental in the nascent careers of those who were to become some of Australia's most famous artists. His monumental Encyclopedia of Australian Art, first published in 1968 and still in print today, has been acknowledged as the single most important reference work on Australian art ever published. In Letters to a Critic, curator and author Rodney James has mined the rich archival treasure of the McCulloch Papers to create a lively combination of biography and illustrated book of letters. Witty, irreverent, profound and heartfelt, these previously unpublished letters, critical essays, illustrations and works of art provide a unique insight into the art and lives of Australia's most famed art personalities as they simultaneously reveal McCulloch's role as critic, gallery director and mentor.
