The Mediation Of Ornament:

The Mediation of Ornament Oleg Grabar, 2023-08-15 How ornamentation enables a direct and immediate encounter between viewers and art objects Based on universal motifs ornamentation occurs in many artistic traditions though it reaches its most expressive tangible and unique form in the art of the Islamic world The Mediation of Ornament shares a veteran art historian's love for the sheer sensuality of Islamic ornamentation but also uses this art to show how ornament serves as a consistent intermediary between viewers and artistic works from all cultures and periods Oleg Grabar analyzes early and medieval Islamic objects ranging from frontispieces in Yemen to tilework in the Alhambra and compares them to Western examples treating all pieces as testimony of the work life thought and emotion experienced in one society The Mediation of Ornament is essential reading for admirers of Islamic art and anyone interested in the ways of perceiving and understanding the arts more broadly

The Mediation of Ornament Oleg Grabar, 2023-10-17 How ornamentation enables a direct and immediate encounter between viewers and art objects Based on universal motifs ornamentation occurs in many artistic traditions though it reaches its most expressive tangible and unique form in the art of the Islamic world The Mediation of Ornament shares a veteran art historian's love for the sheer sensuality of Islamic ornamentation but also uses this art to show how ornament serves as a consistent intermediary between viewers and artistic works from all cultures and periods Oleg Grabar analyzes early and medieval Islamic objects ranging from frontispieces in Yemen to tilework in the Alhambra and compares them to Western examples treating all pieces as testimony of the work life thought and emotion experienced in one society The Mediation of Ornament is essential reading for admirers of Islamic art and anyone interested in the ways of perceiving and understanding the arts more broadly

Islamic Art and Beyond Oleg Grabar, 2006 The articles selected for Islamic Art and Beyond the third in the set of four selections of articles by Oleg Grabar illustrate how the author's study of Islamic art led him in two directions for a further understanding of the arts One is how to define Islamic art and what impulses provided it with its own peculiar forms and dynamics of growth The other issue is that of the meanings to be given to forms like domes so characteristic of Islamic art or to terms like symbol signs or aesthetic values in the arts especially when one considers the contemporary world

Relics, Prayer, and Politics in Medieval Venetia Thomas E. A. Dale, 1997 Against a historical backdrop of relic theft and propaganda campaigns waged by two cities vying for patriarchal authority in medieval Venetia Thomas Dale shows how Romanesque mural painting shaped sacred space and institutional identity His focus is on the late twelfth century murals in the crypt of Aquileia Cathedral The crypt which contains the relics of Aquileia's founding bishop Saint Hermagoras has a historical significance rooted in a legend identifying the saint as a direct disciple of Saint Mark the Evangelist On this basis the Carolingians promoted the city's status as patriarchal see of Venetia a claim that prompted Venice to steal Mark's relics from Alexandria Egypt and appropriate Aquileia's history This book the first English language study of the crypt explores how the paintings complement the relics of Hermagoras in their distinct devotional and political roles Hermagoras's intercessory power is activated by his orant image displayed over the central aisle within a larger hierarchy of apostles, martyrs and bishops. The surrounding hagiographic cycle justifies in legalistic fashion Aquileia's patriarchal title and the consecration of the city as locus sanctus of Venetia by the blood of its martyrs. The iconic images in the eastern lunettes present the Virgin's compassio as a pictorial model for the vicarious experience of Christ's Passion. Finally a fictive curtain over the socle presents allegories of spiritual warfare in the form of exempla from crusades, pilgrimage and the epic poem Psychomachia which Dale analyzes as a gloss on the main program.

The Mediation of Ornament. The A.W. Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts, 1989 Oleg Grabar, 1992 Art and Architecture in the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami, 2013-12-20 What is art in the sense of the Islamic tradition Mohammed Hamdouni Alami argues that Islamic art has historically been excluded from Western notions of art that the Western aesthetic tradition's preoccupation with the human body and the ban on the representation of the human body in Islam has meant that Islamic and Western art have been perceived as inherently at odds. However the move away from this anthropomorphic aesthetic in Western art movements such as modern abstract and constructivist painting have presented the opportunity for new ways of viewing and evaluating Islamic art and architecture. This book questions the very idea of art predicated on the anthropocentric bias of classical art and the corollary exclusion of Islamic art from the status of art. It addresses a central question in post-classical aesthetic theory in as much as the advent of modern abstract and constructivist painting have shown that art can be other than the representation of the human body that art is not neutral aesthetic contemplation but it is fraught with power and violence and that the presupposition of classical art was not a universal truth but the assumption of a specific cultural and historical set of practices and vocabularies. Based on close readings of classical Islamic literature, philosophy, poetry, medicine and theology along with contemporary Western art theory the author uncovers a specific Islamic theoretical vision of art and architecture based on poetic practice, politics, cosmology and desire. In particular it traces the effects of decoration and architectural planning on the human soul as well as the centrality of the gaze in this poetic view in Arabic nazar while examining its surprising similarity to modern theories of the gaze. Through this double gesture moving critically between two traditions the author brings Islamic thought and aesthetics back into the realm of visibility addressing the lack of recognition in comparison with other historical periods and traditions. This is an important step toward a critical analysis of the contemporary debate around the revival of Islamic architectural identity a debate intricately embedded within opposing Islamic political and social projects throughout the world.

A handbook of ornament. Transl. Franz Sales Meyer, 1894 Ornament and Order Dr Rafael Schacter, 2014-09-28 Over the last forty years graffiti and street art have become a global phenomenon within the visual arts. Whilst they have increasingly been taken seriously by the art establishment or perhaps the art market their academic and popular examination still remains within old debates which argue over whether these acts are vandalism or art and which examine the role of graffiti in gang culture and in terms of visual pollution Based on an in depth ethnographic study working with some of the world s most influential Independent Public Artists this book takes a completely new approach Placing these illicit aesthetic practices within a broader historical political and aesthetic context it argues that they are in fact both intrinsically ornamental working within a classic architectonic framework as well as innately ordered within a highly ritualized performative structure Rather than disharmonic destructive forms rather than ones solely working within the dynamics of the market these insurgent images are seen to reface rather than deface the city operating within a modality of contemporary civic ritual The book is divided into two main sections Ornament and Order Ornament focuses upon the physical artifacts themselves the various meanings these public artists ascribe to their images as well as the tensions and communicative schemata emerging out of their material form Using two very different understandings of political action it places these illicit icons within the wider theoretical debate over the public sphere that they materially re present Order is focused more closely on the ephemeral trace of these spatial acts the explicitly performative practice based elements of their aesthetic production Exploring thematics such as carnival and play risk and creativity it tracks how the very residue of this cultural production structures and shapes the socio ethico guidelines of these artists lifeworlds

Abstraction Mary Frame,2001 Less familiar strands of the history of modern art are often obscured by the canonical history of Western abstraction In rethreading them Abstraction The Amerindian Paradigm ascertains the unfolding of an abstract art that was born of a cross fertilization with the indigenous arts of the Americas The abstract forms that have emerged from practices such as weaving and ceramics which the West has long deemed lowly crafts are reread challenging the dominant assumption that abstract art is a prerogative of the modern West The uncompromising geometry and bold colors of ancient Andean weavings insistently characterized in ethnographic and art historical discourses as decorative are heralded here as the textile paradigm of abstraction a grid that precedes by millennia the Western modernist grid Between the 1920s and 40s Paul Klee Joaquin Torres Garcia Josef and Anni Albers Barnett Newman and Adolph Gottlieb led the way in gazing at the ancient American arts Later Louise Nevelson Alfred Jensen Mathias Goeritz Tony Smith Helmut Federle and South American artists Libero Badii Francisco Matto Gonzalo Fonseca Eduardo Ramirez Villamizar Alejandro Puente and Cesar Paternosto as well as textile artist Lenore Tawney and poet artist Cecilia Vicuna had significant encounters with the Amerindian arts In their accompanying essays Cesar Paternosto focuses on the emergence of an abstraction rooted on the indigenous arts of the Americas Lucy R Lippard writes on her experiences while researching the rock art of New Mexico Mary Frame discusses the cultural resonance of textile structural forms in the ancient Andes Cecilia de Torres narrates the story of the pioneering trecks to pre Columbian sites by Torres Garcia s disciples and Valentin Ferdinan discusses the formative aspects of modern culture in Latin America

The Nave Sculpture of Vézelay Kirk Ambrose,2006 This scholarly work fundamentally changes the way we think about the monastic church of Vezelay and its sculptures Kirk Ambrose provides a new account of the celebrated sculptural ensemble at this important French Romanesque monastic church Whereas scholarly attention in the past has focused almost exclusively on the Pentecostal portal Ambrose devotes most of his analysis to the nave capitals He considers how these works intersect with various aspects of monastic culture from poetry to a sign language used during observed periods of silence From this study it emerges how many of the sculptures resonated with communal practices and with interpretive modes in use at the site Deeming the attempt to uncover an underlying or unifying program to be an anachronistic project Ambrose explores historically specific ways this ensemble cohered for medieval viewers Covering a range of themes including hagiography ornament and violence he develops alternative approaches for the examination of serial imagery As a result this book has broad implications for the study of

eleventh and twelfth century art in the West BOOK JACKET
