The Mexican Tree Duck James Crumley, 2016-07-12 WINNER OF THE DASHIELL HAMMETT AWARD One night up in Montana C W Sughrue sets his seedy bar's pricey jukebox in front of an oncoming freight train When predictable results ensue he needs to find a way to make some money and pay back the jukebox company So even though Sughrue's officially retired from P I work he picks up one small time case involving some kidnapped fish That fishy trail leads to a much bigger case involving a Texas politician's kidnapped wife a valuable piece of pre Columbian pottery and a single mother who packs guns and stolen goods in her infant son's diaper bag

Men After War Stephen McVeigh, Nicola Cooper, 2013 This book is an innovative collection of original research which analyzes the many varieties of post conflict masculinity Exploring topics such as physical disability and psychological trauma and masculinity and sexuality in relation to the feminizing contexts of wounding and desertion this volume draws together leading academics in the fields of gender history literature and disability studies in an inter and multi disciplinary exploration of the conditions and circumstances that men face in the aftermath of war

After the Death of Literature Richard B. Schwartz, 1997 Schwartz speculates that Johnson who revered hard facts a wide cultural base and common sense would have exhibited scant patience with the heavily academic approaches currently favored in the study of literature He considers it probable that the combatants in the early struggles of the culture wars are losing energy and that in the wake of Alvin Kernan's declaration of the death of literature new battlegrounds are developing Ironically admiring the orchestration and staging of battles old and new superb he calls them he characterizes the entire culture war as a battle between straw men carefully constructed by the combatants to sustain a pattern of polarization that could be exploited to provide continuing professional advancement

Wildlife of Mexico A. Starker Leopold, 2023-12-22 Although an elegant and interesting treatise on hunting it is not a contribution to zoological or ecological literature nor did the author intend it as such

War Noir Sarah Trott, 2016-11-03 The conflation of the hard boiled style and war experience has influenced many contemporary crime writers particularly in the traumatic aftermath of the Vietnam War Yet earlier writers in the genre such as Raymond Chandler remain overlooked when it comes to examining how their war experience affected their writing Sarah Trott corrects this oversight by examining Chandler alongside the World War I writers of the Lost Generation as well as highlighting a melding of very different styles in Chandler's work Based on Chandler's experience in combat Trott explains that the writer created detective Philip Marlowe not as the idealization of heroic individualism as is commonly perceived but instead as an authentic individual subjected to very real psychological frailties from trauma during the First World War Inspecting Chandler's work and correspondence indicates that the characterization of the fictional Marlowe goes beyond the traditional chivalric readings and can instead be interpreted as a genuine representation of a traumatized veteran in American society Substituting the horror of the trenches for the corruption of the city Chandler formed a disillusioned protagonist in an uncaring America Chandler did so with the sophistication necessary to straddle genre fiction and canonical literature The sum of this work offers a new understanding of how Chandler uses his war trauma how that experience established the traditional archetype of detective fiction and how this reading of his fiction enables Chandler to transcend generic limitations and be recognized as a key twentieth century literary figure

New Hard-boiled Writers, 1970s-1990s LeRoy Panek,2000 With an eye toward the origins and development of the hard boiled story LeRoy Lad Panek comments both on the way it has changed over the past three decades and examines the work of ten significant contemporary hardboiled writers Chapters show how the new writers have used the hard boiled story and the hard boiled hero to make powerful statements about reality in the last quarter of the twentieth century BOOK
