Postmodern War Chris Hables Gray,2013-11-12 Postmodern War poses an urgent challenge to the ways we conceptualize and actually wage war in our high technology age Computerization and artificial intelligence have brought about a revolution in warfare spawning both increasingly powerful weapons and a rhetoric which disguises their apocalyptic potential in catch phrases like smart weapons and bloodless combat Postmodern War examines contemporary practices of war defining and critiquing trendy military doctrines hidden behind phrases like Infowar and Cyberwar the roles of those who manipulate high technology those who are manipulated by it and those who are increasingly merging with it the role of peace activists and socially responsible scientists in countering dangerous assumptions made by a postmodern military Far from opposing technological change however Gray finds new hopes for peace in the twenty first century Provocative and far reaching in its scope the book argues that postmodern war has left us poised between the most dreadful and most utopian of alternatives we may eradicate either the human race or war itself Wargaming ,1992 Computers as Weapons and Metaphors Chris Hables Gray,1991 Computers as Weapons and Metaphors Chris Habels Gray,1991 Codes and Ciphers Fred B. Encyclopedia of Physical Science and Technology ,1992 Blog Theory Jodi Dean,2013-04-17 Blog Theory offers a critical theory of contemporary media Furthering her account of communicative capitalism Jodi Dean explores the ways new media practices like blogging and texting capture their users in intensive networks of enjoyment production and surveillance Her wide ranging and theoretically rich analysis extends from her personal experiences as a blogger through media histories to newly emerging social network platforms and applications Set against the background of the economic crisis wrought by neoliberalism the book engages with recent work in contemporary media theory as well as with thinkers such as Giorgio Agamben Jean Baudrillard Guy Debord Jacques Lacan and Slavoj i ek Through these engagements Dean defends the provocative thesis that reflexivity in complex networks is best understood via the psychoanalytic notion of the drives She contends moreover that reading networks in terms of the drives enables us to grasp their real human dimension that is the feelings and affects that embed us in the system In remarkably clear and lucid prose Dean links seemingly trivial and transitory updates from the new mass culture of the internet to more fundamental changes in subjectivity and politics Everyday communicative exchanges from blog posts to text messages have widespread effects effects that not only undermine capacities for democracy but also entrap us in circuits of domination El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print, 1996 R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1996-02 The Cumulative Book Index ,1989 A world list of books in the English language
