Provided by publisher Television in Black-and-white America Alan Nadel,2005 La couverture indique Alan Nadel s new book reminds us that most of the images on early TV were decidedly Caucasian and directed at predominantly white audiences Television did not invent whiteness for America but it did reinforce it as the norm particularly during the Cold War years Nadel now shows just how instrumental it was in constructing a narrow conservative and very white vision of America During this era prime time TV was dominated by adult Westerns with heroes like The Rebel s Johnny Yuma reincarnating Southern values and Bonanza s Cartwright family reinforcing the notion of white patriarchy programs that Nadel shows bristled with Cold War messages even as they spoke to the nation s mythology America had become visually reconfigured as a vast Ponderosa crisscrossed by concrete highways designed to carry suburban white drivers beyond the moral challenge of racism racial poverty and increasingly vocal civil rights demands

"From Beautiful Downtown Burbank" Hal Erickson,2000 Rowan and Martin s Laugh In was one of the quirkiest and most unusual programs on television defying definition as simply comedy variety or burlesque The show had audiences laughing for six seasons and continues to make appearances in revivals reunions and salutes Even with corny and now dated humor the show s signature lines and gags are ingrained in popular American culture This critical history of Laugh In is arranged chronologically and includes background details on the show s creators and the events leading up to Laugh In s creation In addition to an analysis of the original six seasons the text includes information on lookalike shows that emerged after Laugh In s success and on the various resurgences of the show that continued up into the nineties An appendix contains a complete program history with principal
