Their main concern then was with political and socioeconomic structures, institutions, and organizations, or more recently with the daily lives of ordinary people and small communities. The contributors to this volume, all well-known senior historians, offer self-critical reflections on problems they encountered when writing biographies of themselves. Some of them also deal with topics specific to Central Europe, such as the challenges of writing about the lives of both victims and perpetrators. Although the volume concentrates on European historiography, its strong methodological and conceptual focus will be of great interest to non-European historians wrestling with the old structure versus agency question in their own work. Contributors: Volker R. Berghahn, Hartmut Berghoff, Hilary Earl, Jan Eckel, Willem Frijhoff, Ian Kershaw, Simone Lässig, Karl Heinrich Pohl, John C. G. Röhl, Angelika Schaser, Joachim Radkau, Cornelia Rauh, Kathrine Mark Roseman, Christoph Strupp, and Michael Wildt. Rosa Manus (1881-1942) Myriam Everard, Francisca de Haan, 2016-11-01 Rosa Manus (1881-1942) uncovers the life of Dutch feminist and peace activist Rosa Manus, co-founder of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, vice-president of the International Alliance of Women, and founding president of the International Archives for the Women's Movement (IAW) in Amsterdam, revealing its rootedness in Manus's radical secular Jewishness. Because the Nazis looted the IAW in 1940, including Manus's large personal archive, and subsequently arrested, imprisoned, and murdered her in 1942, Rosa Manus has been almost unknown to later generations. This collective biography offers essays based on new and in-depth research on pictures and documents from her archives, returned to Amsterdam in 2003, as well as other primary sources. It thus restores Manus to the history from which the Nazis attempted to erase her. Contributors include Margot Badran, Mineke Bosch, Ellen Carol DuBois, Myriam Everard, Karen Garner, Francisca de Haan, Dagmar Wernitznig, and Annika Wilmers. The volume touches on all of the important themes of that history: the centrality of peace activism, the impact of the world wars and the rise of fascism, the tensions over imperialism and nationalist resistance in colonized countries, the importance of resources to the persistence of the movement, the vital glue of intimate relationships.

and brings to the fore additional ones including the role of Jewish women the centrality of Dutch feminists in transnational feminism and the struggle over preserving the history of the movement Leila J Rupp University of California Santa Barbara in Women s History Review 2018
