Tea With Mr Rochester:

Tea with Mr. Rochester Frances Towers,1949 When these captivating and at times bizarre stories were published posthumously in 1949 Angus Wilson wrote It appears no exaggeration to say that Frances Towers death in 1948 may have robbed us of a figure of more than purely contemporary significance At first glance one might be disposed to dismiss Miss Towers as an imitation Jane Austen but it would be a mistaken judgment for her cool detachment and ironic eye are directed more often than not against the sensible breeze that blasts and withers the forthright candour that kills the soul Miss Towers flashes and shines now this way now that like a darting sunfish At her best her prose style is a shimmering marvel wrote the Independent on Sunday and few writers can so deftly and economically delineate not only the outside but the inside of a character There s always more going on than you can possibly fathom    Tea with Mr. Rochester Frances Towers,1952
