The Path To Power:

The Path to Power Robert A. Caro, 2019-07-04 The greatest biography of our era Essential reading for those who want to comprehend power and politics The Times Robert A Caro's legendary multi award winning biography of US President Lyndon Johnson is a uniquely riveting and revelatory account of power political genius and the shaping of twentieth century America This first instalment tells of the rise to national power of a desperately poor young man from the Texas Hill Country revealing in extraordinary detail the genesis of the almost superhuman drive energy and ambition that set LBJ apart It charts his boyhood through the years of the Depression to his debut as a Congressman his heartbreaking defeat in his first race for the Senate and his attainment nonetheless at the age of thirty one of the power for which he hungered Women,

Educational Policy-Making and Administration in England Joyce Goodman, Sylvia Harrop, 2002-11-01 The role of women in policy making has been largely neglected in conventional social and political histories This book opens up this field of study taking the example of women in education as its focus It examines the work attitudes actions and philosophies of women who played a part in policy making and administration in education in England over two centuries looking at women engaged at every level from the local school to the state Women Educational Policy Making and Administration in England traces women's involvement in the establishment and management of schools and teacher training the foundation of the school boards women's representation on educational commissions and their rising professional profile in such roles as school inspector or minister of education These activities highlight vital questions of gender class power and authority and illuminate the increasingly diverse and prominent spectrum of political activity in which women have participated Offering a new perspective on the professional and political role of women this book represents essential reading for anybody with an interest in gender studies or the social and political history of England in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Shame and Humiliation Blema S. Steinberg, 1996-04-16 Steinberg focuses on the narcissistic personality identifying it as intensely self involved and preoccupied with success and recognition as a substitute for parental love She asserts that narcissistic leaders are most likely to use force when they fear being humiliated for failing to act and when they need to restore their diminished sense of self worth Providing case studies of Johnson Nixon and Eisenhower Steinberg describes the childhood maturation and career of each president documenting key personality attributes and then discusses each one's Vietnam policy in light of these traits She contends that Johnson authorized the bombing of Vietnam in part because he feared the humiliation that would come from inaction and that Nixon escalated US intervention in Cambodia in part because of his low sense of self esteem Steinberg contrasts these two presidents with Eisenhower who was psychologically secure and was therefore able to carry out a careful and thoughtful analysis of the problem he faced in Indochina Shame and Humiliation reveals how personality traits affect our perception of reality and offers a powerful demonstration of the impact of psychodynamics on presidential decision making McNamara at War William Taubman, Philip Taubman, 2025-09-23 A revelatory portrait of Robert S McNamara informed by newly discovered diaries letters and interviews with those closest to him Robert S McNamara was widely considered to be one of the most brilliant men of his generation He was an invaluable ally of Presidents John F Kennedy and Lyndon B Johnson as U S secretary of defense and he had a deeply moving relationship with Jackie Kennedy But to the country McNamara was the leading advocate for American escalation in Vietnam He strongly advised Johnson to deploy hundreds of thousands of American ground troops just weeks before concluding that the war was unwinnable and for the next two and a half years McNamara failed to urge Johnson to cut his losses and withdraw McNamara at War examines McNamara s life of intense personal contradictions following his childhood his career as a young faculty member at Harvard Business School and his World War II service to his leadership of the Ford Motor Company and the World Bank Philip and William Taubman had access to materials previously unavailable to McNamara biographers including Jacqueline Kennedy s warm letters to McNamara during the Kennedy and Johnson administrations and beyond family correspondence dating back to McNamara s service in World War II and a secret diary maintained by McNamara s top Vietnam policy aide What emerges is the comprehensive story of the infamous former leader of the Pentagon riven by melancholy guilt zealous loyalty and a profound inability to admit his flawed thinking about Vietnam before it was too late McNamara at War is a portrait of a man at war with himself with a grave influence on the history of the United States and the world

Margaret Thatcher on Leadership Nile Gardiner,Stephen Thompson,2013-10-01 This inspirational and practical guide for conservatives combines stories from Lady Thatcher s life with principles and strategies conservatives can apply to their challenges today Nile Gardiner and Stephen Thompson outline the critical lessons conservatives can learn from Lady Thatcher on articulating conservative principles to a broader audience cutting through bureaucratic messes to achieve goals and standing up to aggressive regimes

British Trade Unions and Industrial Politics John McIlroy,Nina Fishman,Alan Campbell,2018-10-04 First published in 1999 this book discusses trade unionism in Britain from 1964 to 1979 Detailing political change in British politics from union strikes to Thatcherism in the late 1970s and the implications that had on trade unions and industrial politics

Journal of the Western Society of Engineers Western Society of Engineers (Chicago, Ill.),1925 The Manufacturer and Builder Peter Henri Van der Weyde,William Henry Wahl,1884 Billed in early issues as a practical journal of industrial progress this monthly covers a broad range of topics in engineering manufacturing mechanics architecture building etc Later issues say it is devoted to the advancement and diffusion of practical knowledge

The Esoteric ,1896 The French Communist Party in Transition Annette E. Stiebold,1977 Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine ,1896 The New God, and Other Essays Ralph Shirley,1911 The Path to Power Robert A. Caro,1982-11-12 The Years of Lyndon Johnson is the political biography of our time No president no era of American politics has been so intensively and sharply examined at a time when so many prime witnesses to hitherto untold or misinterpreted facets of a life a career and a period of history could still be persuaded to speak The Path to Power Book One reveals in extraordinary detail the genesis of the almost superhuman drive energy and urge to power that set LBJ apart Chronicling the startling early emergence of Johnson's political genius it follows him from his Texas boyhood through the years of the Depression in the Texas hill Country to the triumph of his congressional debut in New Deal Washington to his heartbreaking defeat in his first race for the Senate and his attainment nonetheless of the national power for which he hungered We see in him from earliest childhood a fierce unquenchable necessity to be first to win to dominate coupled with a limitless capacity for hard unceasing labor in the service of his own ambition Caro shows us the big gangling awkward young Lyndon raised in one of the country's most desperately poor and isolated areas his education mediocre at best his pride stung by his father's slide into failure and financial ruin lunging for success moving inexorably toward that ultimate impossible goal that he sets for himself years before any friend or enemy suspects what it may be We watch him while still at college instinctively and ruthlessly creating the beginnings of the political machine that was to serve him for three decades We see him employing his extraordinary ability to mesmerize and manipulate powerful older men to mesmerize and sometimes almost enslave useful subordinates We see him carrying out before his thirtieth year his first great political inspiration tapping and becoming the political conduit for the money and influence of the new oil men and contractors who were to grow with him to immense power We follow close up the radical fluctuations of his relationships with the formidable Mr Sam Rayburn who loved him like a son and whom he betrayed and with FDR himself And we follow the dramas of his emotional life the intensities and complications of his relationships with his family his contemporaries his girls his wooing and winning of the shy Lady Bird his secret love affair over many years with the mistress of one of his most ardent and generous supporters Johnson driving his people to the point of exhausted tears equally merciless with himself Johnson bullying cajoling lying yet inspiring an amazing loyalty Johnson maneuvering to dethrone the unassailable old Jack Garner then Vice President of the United States as the New Deal's connection in Texas and seize the power himself Johnson raging Johnson hugging Johnson bringing light and indeed life to the worn Hill Country farmers and their old at thirty wives via the district's first electric lines We see him at once unscrupulous admirable treacherous devoted And we see the country that bred him the harshness and nauseating loneliness of the rural life the tragic panorama of the Depression the sudden glow of hope at the dawn of the Age of Roosevelt And always in the foreground on the move LBJ Here is Lyndon Johnson his Texas his Washington his America in a book that brings us as close as we have ever been to a true perception of political genius and the American political process

The Elementary Principles of Mechanics: Kinetics. 1895 Augustus Jay Du Bois, 1895 The Golden lamp; or, Truth in love for the children of God , 1885 The Musical Times , 1908 Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office USA Patent Office, 1899 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science , 1889 Littell's Living Age , 1872 Retreat from the Finland Station Kenneth Murphy, 1992 In examining the lives of leading revolutionaries Nicolai Bukharin Milovan Djilas Imre Nagy and Alexander Dubcek and writers Andre Gide Arthur Koestler Ignazio Silone and even the young Alexander

Solzhenitsyn who became prisoners rather than masters of the bloodshed their adherence to socialism seemed to unleash Murphy reveals to us the terrible moral consequences they suffered as their faith in socialism crumbled He compellingly shows how their idealistic vision spawned a world of want anger terror and death For blind obedience to the socialist cause allowed the new state to perpetuate indeed to incarnate the violence out of which it was born In so doing the idea of revolutionary liberty was devoured Freedom surrendered to Stalinist terror political innocence to Communist corruption eloquence to the silence of the gulag
