The Pagan Land:

The Pagan Writes Back Zhange Ni,2015-05-21 In the first book to consider the study of world religion and world literature in concert Zhange Ni proposes a new reading strategy that she calls pagan criticism which she applies not only to late twentieth and early twenty first century literary texts that engage the global resurgence of religion but also to the very concepts of religion and the secular Focusing on two North American writers the Jewish American Cynthia Ozick and the Canadian Margaret Atwood and two East Asian writers the Japanese End Sh saku and the Chinese Gao Xingjian Ni reads their fiction drama and prose to envision a pagan re turn in the study of world religion and world literature In doing so she highlights the historical complexities and contingencies in literary texts and challenges both Christian and secularist assumptions regarding aesthetics and hermeneutics In assessing the collision of religion and literature Ni argues that the clash has been not so much between monotheistic orthodoxies and the sanctification of literature as between the modern Western model of religion and the secular and its non Western others When East and West converge under the rubric of paganism she argues the study of religion and literature develops into that of world religion and world literature

Celebrating this day as the feast of the Holy Spirit who favored the infinite love of God for the Son with infinite joy and obedience to descend to earth and take in His omnipotent hands the work of human salvation we will remember in blessed songs and the Blessed Virgin Mary to whom the Holy Spirit descended earlier than to the apostles To the apostles God the Spirit descended as the Church as the unanimous community of saints to the Mother of God as to a specially chosen Person The Holy Spirit will find upon you and the power of the Most High will overshadow you the archangel Gabriel blessed the Blessed Virgin And She by the power of the Holy Spirit gave birth to the most red fruit from whom the heavens and the earth are fragrant and with whom all the faithful feed from beginning to end O Blessed Virgin Mary the dawn and cradle of our salvation our image of humility and obedience Our Intercessor and Prayer House at the throne of God O King of Heaven the Comforter the Soul of Truth come to us and dwell in us and abide in us as strength light and warmth how is our life and our joy And cleanse us from all filth and save better our souls Fill our hearts with joys and our mouths hymns let us glorify and magnify you with the Father and the Son the Trinity the One Essential and the Undivided now and ever at all times and forever and ever Amen
