Money L. Hickman, Yasuhiro Satō, 1989-01-01 日本書道, 2020-03-27 The Paintings of Jakuchu Jakuchu Ito, 1989 The Art of Budo John Stevens, 2022-12-06 Explore this stunning collection of spiritual calligraphy by Japan's greatest martial arts masters with commentary from Zen art authority and aikido master John Stevens Beginning with the legendary samurai Miyamoto Musashi nearly all of the great martial arts masters left a legacy of calligraphy and painting Their artwork Zenga and Zensho Zen pictures and Zen calligraphy was not only an extension of their Zen practice but also reflected their deep spiritual commitment to the budo ethos the perfection of self through martial arts training This book presents a concise history of this tradition with works from such samurai as Musashi Takuan Yagyu Motusgai Rengetsu Tesshu Deishu Kano Morihei and others Aikido master John Stevens is an expert on Zen and budo art and he provides a fascinating introduction to the tradition and biographical details on each of the warrior artists and brief illuminating commentary on each piece Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art, 1600-2005 Patricia J. Graham, 2007-09-30 Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art explores the transformation of Buddhism from the premodern to the contemporary era in Japan and the central role its visual culture has played in this transformation Although Buddhism is generally regarded as peripheral to modern Japanese society this book demonstrates otherwise Its chapters elucidate the thread of change over time in the practice of Buddhism as revealed in temple worship halls and other sites of devotion and in imagery representing the religion's most popular deities and religious practices It also introduces the work of modern and contemporary artists who are not generally associated with institutional Buddhism and its canonical visual requirements but whose faith inspires their art The author makes a persuasive argument that the neglect of these materials by scholars results from erroneous presumptions about the aesthetic superiority of early Japanese Buddhist artifacts and an asserted decline in the institutional power of the religion after the sixteenth century She demonstrates that recent works constitute a significant contribution to the history of Japanese art and architecture providing evidence of Buddhism's compelling presence at all levels of Japanese society and its evolution in response to the needs of new generations of supporters Colorful Realm Yukio Lippit, 2012 A much anticipated harbinger of spring the cherry blossom is also exemplary of the Japanese artistic aesthetic a delight in simple natural beauty and an attentiveness to the changing seasons This spring will mark the centennial of Japan's gift of three thousand cherry trees to Washington DC and this sumptuously illustrated catalogue is the companion to a celebratory exhibition at the National Gallery of Art featuring the work of Ito Jakuchu Jakuchu 1716-1800 a wealthy wholesaler and talented painter is in Japan the most recognized artist of the premodern era His thirty scroll set of bird and flower paintings titled Colorful Realm of Living Beings is a renowned cultural treasure one of the most beautiful and skilled examples of how the natural world is depicted and symbolized in Japanese art Presenting gorgeous flora and fauna in meticulous detail the scrolls are reunited here with Jakuchu's triptych of the Buddha Sakyamuni from the Zen monastery Shokokuji in Kyoto. This stunning volume reproduces these masterpieces of Edo period art and complements them with extensive background material on their significance. Recent conservation of the scrolls has revealed new information about the materials and techniques used by Jakuchu, and those findings are discussed in the volume, offering a multifaceted understanding of the artist's virtuosity and innovation as a painter. As the first English language examination and overseas display of Jakuchu's Colorful Realm in its entirety, the book and exhibition will offer new audiences a chance to encounter this landmark work, generously lent by the Imperial Household Agency, Tokyo.

Japanese Masterworks from the Price Collection, 2007

Joe Price purchased his first Japanese painting in the 1950s under the influence of Frank Lloyd Wright. Over the next five decades, he and his wife Etsuko would collect more than 200 masterpieces from the Edo period (1615-1868), a time when Japan had isolated itself from the rest of the world. Curiously, during that period of national seclusion, independent and diversely creative artists flourished as never before. Today the Etsuko and Joe Price Collection is placed among the finest in the world The detailed patterns evident in many of the works reflect the high regard artists of the period held for textile designers The expressiveness in the eyes of the various animals demons deities and people depicted suggest that they all inhabited the same world rather than different spiritual levels the prominent religious theory of the time The animal world becomes more animated landscapes have their own light spirits are alive past becomes present evoking a mood that suggests familiarity with all worlds above and below At the collection s core are screens hanging scrolls fans and some of the finest examples of the distinctive hauntingly preternatural renderings of animal life by Ito Jakuchu 1716 1800 one of the most innovative and imaginative of Kyoto s eighteenth century painters Jakuchu s prominence in recent decades has been greatly aided by the Price s intensive interest in his work

Sanford, William R. LaFleur, Masatoshi Nagatomi, 2014-07-14 According to the contributors to this volume the relationship of Buddhism and the arts in Japan is less the rendering of Buddhist philosophical ideas through artistic imagery than it is the development of concepts and expressions in a virtually inseparable unity By challenging those who consider religion to be the primary phenomenon and art the secondary arena for the apprehension of religious meanings these essays reveal the collapse of other dichotomies as well Touching on works produced at every social level they explore a fascinating set of connections within Japanese culture and move to re envision such usual distinctions as religion and art sacred and secular Buddhism and Shinto theory and substance elite and popular and even audience and artist The essays range from visual and literary hagiographies to No drama to Sermon Ballads to a painting of the Nirvana of Vegetables The contributors to the volume are James H Foard Elizabeth ten Grotenhuis Frank Hoff Laura S Kaufman William R LaFleur Susan Matisoff Barbara Ruch Yoshiaki Shimizu and Royall Tyler Originally published in 1992 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
