The Tattooed Rood Kyle Onstott, Lance Horner, 1963 He Larry Benjamin, 2025-10-11 I remembered black eyes and bruised ribs and hands heavy with prayer like fists raining down Preacher's kid Jackson and orphaned Oren grow up in the same dusty poor Bible thumping farm town When they meet at sixteen they discover they have more in common than just their roots and brutal upbringing Together they begin to explore their orientation and their burgeoning love for each other When they are threatened with consignment in conversion camp they abruptly leave town together Oren attends college while Jackson learns a trade In their new surroundings they discover friends and a sense of safety for the first time Forty years later when a shocking act of betrayal destroys their relationship each is left wondering if there can be love after the apocalypse as they look back on a past they cannot change and a future they cannot predict When Oren reluctantly attends his fortieth high school reunion and reconnects with his high school crush sparks unexpectedly fly A remarkable tale of romance and resilience using the premise that orientation is simply a pattern of attraction He explores what happens when that pattern is broken Told epistolary style through journal entries and Facebook messages the book is divided into periods each of which is denoted by a color rather than traditional chapters Mattachine Review ,1963 The Tattooed Rood Kyle Onstott, Lance Horner, 1981-10-12 General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
