Engineering Teaching in China's Higher Education Tengteng Zhuang, 2023-06-02 Based on a case study of engineering teaching in China's higher education sector this book unravels the interlocking influencing factors that condition the experience of engineering faculty members along with multiple stakeholders expectations of engineering teaching. What motivates and demotivates a university instructor to provide excellent teaching especially in the disciplines where effective instructor guidance is crucial for student learning. This book gives evidence based answers to this research question drawing upon a social realist framework in relation to the disciplinary features of engineering and based on both qualitative and quantitative methods. It expatiates upon structural cultural and reflexive factors concerning both the academic profession and industry and how teaching behaviors are shaped. In doing so the author advances pragmatic suggestions for higher education reform under the prevalent performance management systems posing implications for global higher education in regard to what structural arrangements and cultural milieu should be in place to unleash the potential of engineering teaching. The book will appeal to scholars of higher education Chinese and comparative education and education sociology and academics and policy makers interested in engineering education and teacher education Journal of Higher Education, 1983

Educational Technology, 1981 Pastoral Care and Personal-social Education Ron Best, 1995 The impact of the 1988 Education Reform Act on the management of schools and the delivery of the curriculum is a major preoccupation for all those in education. Any discussion of the role of the teacher and the entitlement of the pupil is dominated by the requirements of the National Curriculum. It is easy to forget that teachers are also concerned with the emotional support of troubled children and with the promotion of the personal social and moral development of all children. Initiated by and published in association with the National Association for Pastoral Care in Education NAPCE this book brings together teachers and teacher educators at the forefront of developments in pastoral care and PSE. Its wide ranging and up to date examination of the pupil's entitlement to pastoral support and to a curriculum which pays due regard to the development of the whole person represents the first comprehensive treatment of these topics to be published for over a decade Classroom Connect
