The Hundred Languages of Children Carolyn Edwards,Lella

Gandini,George Forman,2011-12-13 Why does the city of Reggio Emilia in northern Italy feature one of the best public systems of early education in the world. This book documents the comprehensive and innovative approach that utilizes the hundred languages of children to support their well being and foster their intellectual development. Educators in Reggio Emilia Italy use a distinctive innovative approach that supports children's well being and fosters their intellectual development through a systematic focus on symbolic representation. From birth through age six young children are encouraged to explore their environment and express their understanding through many modes of expression or languages including verbal communication movement drawing painting sculpture shadow play collage and music. This organic strategy has been shown to be highly effective as the children in Reggio Emilia display surprising examples of symbolic skill and creativity. This book describes how the world renowned preschool services and accompanying practical strategies for children under six in Reggio Emilia have evolved in response to the community's demographic and political transformations and to generational changes in both the educators and the parents of the children. The authors provide the reader with a comprehensive introduction to the Reggio Emilia experience and address three of the most important central themes of the work in Reggio in detail teaching and learning through relationships the hundred languages of children and how this concept has evolved and integrating documentation into the process of observing reflecting and communicating

John Gladman,1898     Didactics of Mathematics as a Scientific Discipline Rolf Biehler,Roland W. Scholz,Rudolf Sträßer,Bernard Winkelmann,1993-11-30 Didactics of Mathematics as a Scientific Discipline describes the state of the art in a new branch of science. Starting from a general perspective on the didactics of mathematics the 30 original contributions to the book drawn from 10 different countries go on to identify certain subdisciplines and suggest an overall structure or topology of the field. The book is divided into eight sections 1 Preparing Mathematics for Students 2 Teacher Education and Research on Teaching 3 Interaction in the Classroom 4 Technology and Mathematics Education 5 Psychology of Mathematical Thinking 6 Differential Didactics 7 History and Epistemology of Mathematics and Mathematics Education 8 Cultural Framing of Teaching and Learning Mathematics. Didactics of Mathematics as a Scientific Discipline is required reading for all researchers into the didactics of mathematics and contains surveys and a variety of stimulating reflections which make it extremely useful for mathematics educators and teacher trainers interested in the theory of their practice. Future and practising teachers of mathematics will find much to interest them in relation to their daily work especially as it relates to the teaching of different age groups and ability ranges. The book is also recommended to researchers in neighbouring disciplines such as mathematics itself general education educational psychology and cognitive science.

Developmental Work Research Yrjö Engeström,2005-01-01 Developmental work research is an innovative approach to the study and reshaping of work and learning. It expands cultural historical activity theory by bringing it to the domains of work technology and organizations The world of work is in turmoil increasingly dominated by runaway objects generated by globalization and greed global markets are such massive objects out of control Yet it is the object that motivates work and generates visions of better future The use values of objects have not vanished although they are more difficult to grasp than perhaps ever before Developmental work research rediscovers and expands use values in runaway objects In workplace interventions it engages practitioners in expansive re forging of the objects of their work Cover The Wiley Handbook of Educational Supervision Sally J.
