

In going to Oxford I could do something which only a few years before had scarcely seemed possible: I could be both fashionable and please my parents at the same time.

Oxford is a playpen where baubles are dangled in front of the talented undergraduate. It is also a place suffused with a spirit of experimentation, while some are drawn by the rewards of ambition, others are entangled in alcohol and drug abuse.

Fear underlies much of the ambition so much in evidence in today's Oxford: fear of passing unremarked through a university where écart is everything.

Any attempt to dispel the Oxford myth only serves to reinforce it. To the outsider, we are all insufferable.
