The Pageantry of Britain Julian Paget, 1981-07-01      The Pageantry of Britain Sir Julian Paget, 1979      The Pageant of British History J. E. Parrot, 2021-01-18      Restaging the Past Angela Bartie, Linda Fleming, Mark Freeman, Alexander Hutton, Paul Readman, 2020-08-17 Restaging the Past is the first edited collection devoted to the study of historical pageants in Britain ranging from their Edwardian origins to the present day Across Britain in the twentieth century people succumbed to pageant fever Thousands dressed up in historical costumes and performed scenes from the history of the places where they lived and hundreds of thousands more watched them These pageants were one of the most significant aspects of popular engagement with the past between the 1900s and the 1970s they took place in large cities small towns and tiny villages and engaged a whole range of different organised groups including Women s Institutes political parties schools churches and youth organisations Pageants were community events bringing large numbers of people together in a shared celebration and performance of the past they also involved many prominent novelists professional historians and other writers as well as featuring repeatedly in popular and highbrow literature Although the pageant tradition has largely died out it deserves to be acknowledged as a key aspect of community history during a period of great social and political change Indeed as this book shows some traces of pageant fever remain in evidence today      Postmodern Fiction and the Break-Up of Britain Hywel Dix, 2010-05-04 A monograph analysing the symbolic role played by contemporary fiction in the break up of political and cultural consensus in British public life      Pageants in Great Britain and the United States Caroline Hill Davis, 1916      The Pageant of Georgian England Elizabeth Burton, 1968      Flemish and Dutch Artists in Early Modern England Mary Bryan H. Curd, 2017-07-05 By examining their production practices in a variety of genres including manuscript illustration glass painting and staining tapestry manufacture portrait painting and engraving this book explores how Netherlandish artists migrating to England in the early modern period overcame difficulties raised by their outsider status This study examines for the first time in this context the challenges of alien status to artistic production and the effectiveness of cooperation as a countermeasure The author demonstrates that collaboration was chief among the strategies that these foreigners chose to secure a position in London s changing art market Curd s exploration of these collaborations primarily follows Pierre Bourdieu s model of establishment and challenger in which dominance in a field of cultural production depends upon how much cultural political and economic capital can be accumulated and the effectiveness of the strategies used to confront competition The analysis presented here challenges received opinion that a collaborative work is only a joint effort of artists working together on a single monument by demonstrating that the participation of patrons and middlemen can also shape the final appearance of a work of art Furthermore this book shows that the strategic use of collaboration served the goal of competition by helping to establish foreign artists in the London art market and suggests that their coping strategies have implications for the study of immigrant behaviors today      The Pageant of Philippine History: From the British
