Transporting Chaucer Helen Barr, 2015-11-01 This book draws on the work of the British sculptor Antony Gormley alongside more traditional literary scholarship to argue for new relationships between Chaucer's poetry and works by others Chaucer's playfulness with textual history and chronology anticipates how his own work is figured in later and earlier texts Conventional models of source and analogue study are re-energised to reveal unexpected and sometimes unsettling literary cohabitations and re-placements The author presents innovative readings of relationships between medieval texts and early modern drama and between literary texts and material culture Associations between medieval architecture pilgrim practice manuscript illustration and the soundscapes of dramatic performance reposition how we read Chaucer's oeuvre and what gets made of it An invaluable resource for scholars and students of all levels with an interest in medieval English literary studies and early modern drama Transporting Chaucer offers a new approach to how we encounter texts through time
