Moral Education for Women in the Pastoral and Pythagorean Letters Annette Huizenga, 2013-03-27 In Moral Education for Women in the Pastoral and Pythagorean Letters Philosophers of the Household Annette Bourland Huizenga examines the Greco Roman moral philosophical curriculum for women by comparing these two pseudepigraphic epistolary collections The analysis is organized around four elements textual resources teachers and learners instructional strategies and subject matter Huizenga shows that the author of the Pastorals has adopted nearly all of the pagan aspects of this curriculum but has supplemented these with theological justifications drawn from Pauline literature and traditions The letters attributed to female Pythagoreans have long been suggested as comparanda for the Pastorals but are not well known as sources This volume provides a Greek edition a new English translation and a text history of these letters The Army Chaplaincy ,1993 The Pastor Philip Leroy Culbertson,Arthur Bradford Shippee,1990 Patristic theology is primarily pastoral Yet often the study of writings from the first six centuries of the church is pursued in ways that make the polemical philosophical and political aspects stand out But if one reads around those texts that are profiled in these ways the pastoral concerns will emerge Even contemporary interests in social economic and deconstructionist approaches locate much of the data for their questions within or near texts that also can be looked at for the descriptions of shepherding the flock Thus it is likely that any who read ancient Christian literature will find this volume helpful The introduction is masterful No other volume known to me does that so well through the translated words of ancient leaders Whatever historical surveys one finds helpful they cannot replace this guide It is done with such competence and flair that specialists who are historians with no particular interest in ministry other than its being a feature of the early church will need to consult it Those however who as believers and ministers are attempting to serve contemporary congregations will devour this book No seminarian should be without it Frederick W Norris Second Century Adds a much needed dimension to the field of pastoral care A fascinating introduction tracing the concept of pastor through history The Living Church In evaluating the work of a pastor today there has been an imbalance caused by a neglect of the tradition of the church This is corrected by the present work which is a most interesting collection of extracts from the patristic period bearing on the work and spirituality of the Christian minister Theological Book Review Philip Culbertson is Adjunct Lecturer in Theology at the University of Auckland in New Zealand and Adjunct Instructor in Philosophy at College of the Desert in Palm Springs California He is an ordained Episcopal priest and has divided his career between university teaching and pastoral ministry in parishes Arthur Shippee teaches Religious Studies at Queens College C U N Y and Eugene Lang College New York Also a Presbyterian pastor he is active in the Presbytery of Southern New England China, a Sourcebook of Information George Ephraim Sokolsky,1920 Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing,R5ference Reed,1995-12 Insider's Guide to Book Editors, Publishers, and Literary Agents, 1996-1997 Jeff Herman,1995-10-25 No other book gives aspiring authors the inside scoop on the names and specialties of acquisitions editors This vital information makes all the difference when submitting a book proposal or manuscript by keeping writers of all genres on top of the rapidly changing world of publishing Who s moved where who s new to the scene who s gone for good it s all here in one big volume Pastors and the Care of Souls in Medieval England John Raymond Shinnors,William J.
