The Patience Of God:

The Incredible Patience of God Lane Adams,2003-10      God's Church-Community David Emerton,2020-07-09 David Emerton argues that Dietrich Bonhoeffer's ecclesial thought breaks open a necessary third way in ecclesiological description between the Scylla of ethnographic ecclesiology and the Charybdis of dogmatic ecclesiology Building on a rigorous and provocative discussion of Bonhoeffer's thought Emerton establishes a programmatic theological grammar for any speech about the church Emerton argues that Bonhoeffer understands the church as a pneumatological and eschatological community in space and time and that his understanding is built on eschatological and pneumatological foundations These foundations in turn give rise to a unique methodological approach to ecclesiological description an approach that enables Bonhoeffer to proffer a genuinely theological account of the church in which both divine and human agency are held together through an account of God the Holy Spirit Emerton proposes that this approach is the perfect remedy for an endemic problem in contemporary accounts of the church that of attending either to the human empirical church community ethnographically or to the life of God dogmatically and to each problematically at the expense of the other This book will act as a clarion call towards genuinely theological ecclesiological speech which is allied to real ecclesial action      God's Being in Reconciliation Adam J. Johnson,2012-03-01 One of the most pressing issues in the doctrine of the atonement today is the question of the unity and diversity of the work of Christ What are we to make of the diversity within the biblical witness and the history of doctrine when it comes to explanations of the meaning and significance of Jesus death and resurrection Without a grasp of the unity of his work our understanding and use of the diversity runs the risk of becoming haphazard and disordered Proposals regarding the unity of Christ's work today tend to focus on the metaphorical nature of language the role of culture and various possible conceptual schemes rarely reflecting on unity and diversity proper to the being God To fill this gap Johnson draws on Karl Barth's integrated account of the doctrines of God and reconciliation harnessing the resources contained within the doctrines of the Trinity and divine perfections to energize a properly theological account of the unity and diversity of the atonement      The Works of the Most Reverend Dr. John Tillotson Containing Two Hundred Sermons and Discourses, on Several Occasions ...
