Sublime Historical Experience:

Sublime Historical Experience F. R. Ankersmit, 2005 Why are we interested in history at all Why do we feel the need to distinguish between past and present This book investigates how the notion of sublime historical experience complicates and challenges existing conceptions of language truth and knowledge Frank Ankersmit's Lost Historical Cause Peter P. Icke, 2012 The contemporary Dutch historical theorist and philosopher Frank Ankersmit an erstwhile advocate and promulgator of what has become known as the linguistic turn in historical theory is very well known within the discipline His early position with regard to the historical text is frequently discussed and evaluated today and his writings on the subject are often cited However this former narrativist position so robustly defended by Ankersmit in the past has been progressively marginalized by Ankersmit himself as his current and radically different theoretical position most fully expressed in his recent publication Sublime Historical Experience now takes precedence Frank Ankersmit's Lost Historical Cause is a polemical account of and a suggested explanation for this Ankersmitean trajectory of thought which transported Ankersmit from the sustainable logic of his early work on the narrative form to the arguably unsustainable concept of sublime historical experience Manifestos for History Sue Morgan, Keith Jenkins, Alun Munslow, 2007-09-12 Written by some of the world's leading historians and theorists of history Manifestos for History draws together a series of manifestos that address the question of what kinds of histories we ought to be considering and making in and for the twenty first century With a foreword by Joanna Bourke and an afterword by Hayden White these manifestos critical innovative reflexive inspirational are absolutely essential reading not just for those embarking on the study of history but for all those who would think seriously about the nature of history in its present and possible future forms This collection establishes a benchmark for all future considerations upon the discourse of history Social Bonds and Historical Time Torbjörn Gustafsson Chorell, 2025-08-07 This book analyses the social dimension of historical time and explores how we emotionally and intellectually bind ourselves to the past and project these ties onto our present and future Gustafsson Chorell argues that historical time is inherently social and that the nexus of past present and future is constructed through social mechanisms Beginning with the concept of the historical imaginary this book examines the theoretical shift from future oriented to present oriented models of time and integrates insights from intellectual history philosophy and social theory This book demonstrates how a variety of social bonds such as emotion generation and authority can affect how historical time is demarcated Analysing key concepts such as desire for the past the impact of grief and nostalgia and the role of history in shaping expectations for the future the volume highlights the enduring significance of sociality even under new regimes of historicity such as the Anthropocene Ultimately Gustafsson Chorell offers a comprehensive view of how past present and future are interconnected and highlights the continued importance of thinking carefully about the relationship between time and history Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review ,1884 The English Historical Review ,1890 The Gentleman's Magazine and Historical
