Culture and Customs of Sudan Kwame Essien, Toyin Falola, 2009 Amid a Sudan's dark history saturated with conflicts and tragic current events lies a culture with deep roots going back as far as 8000 BC With several hundred ethnic groups and languages Sudan is one of the world's most diverse countries Learn how these cultures have blended and collided throughout the centuries and examine how traditions and customs are kept alive today Religious beliefs social customs arts literature and cuisine are among the topics discussed in this volume which is ideal for high school and undergraduate students

It is now widely acknowledged that the issue of Sudan's cultural and political identity is one of the root causes of the Sudanese crisis that has crippled the country since its independence in 1956 and plunged it into a civil war regarded as the longest in Africa Nevertheless this issue continues to be a grossly neglected topic in scholarship concerning Sudan On the other hand the politics of intellectual and artistic production have been inseparable from the pivotal issue of identity ever since the advent of Sudanese nationalism in the 1920s But there has yet been no publication dedicated to the topic of identity as one of the major concerns in modern Sudanese artistic production This study thus undertakes a critical examination of key discourses concerning the cultural basis of modern Sudanese literature visual art music and dance and it attempts to highlight their underlying political and ideological orientations The terms Arabism Afro Arabism Africanism Islamism and Sudanism have developed within these discourses as defining concepts describing the country's ethnic and cultural origins thereby serving as identity constructs The study also examines the relation between the political and the artistic institutions as well as the policy of the Islamization of the Arts launched by the present Islamist regime and its outcome The study may also be viewed as an endeavor to discover within the aesthetic field the missing Sudanese collective memory Stated otherwise this is an effort to redeem the lost Sudanese pedigree that has long been deliberately mystified misconceived and misconstrued for the for the sake of certain political and cultural strategies Another aim of the study is to introduce Sudanese arts and the specific Sudanese aesthetic political debate concerning the topics of culture and identity to both the general reader and specialists as well as to Africanists in general and scholars of African arts and literature in particular
