Sufi Ritual:

Şūfi Ritual Ian Richard Netton,2000 This study reveals the world of Sufi ritual with particular reference to two major Sufi orders It examines the ritual and practices of these orders and surveys their organisation and hierarchy initiation ceremonies and aspects of their liturgy such as dhikr litany and sama mystical concert Comparisons are made with the five pillars of Islam arkan and the Sufi rituals together with the arkan are examined from the perspective of theology phenomenology anthropology and semiotics The work concludes with an examination of the Sufi in the context of alienation This is a major work which highlights the importance of Sufi ritual and locates it within the broader domain of the Islamic world

Living Sufism Nicolaas H. Biegman,2009 Sufism the mystical tradition of Islam is as far from the strident and often violent fundamentalist strain of the religion that has so captured world attention as it is possible to be Sufis in all parts of the Islamic world are broad minded tolerant and non violent their quest only to find and approach God through all means including poetry music and dance Historian Nicolaas Biegman has been observing and photographing Sufi practice and ritual in different Muslim lands for many years and here in this collection of extraordinary photographs he feels the pulse of the Sufi experience with its enormous variety in discipline and exuberance intellectualism and spontaneity in Egypt Syria Bosnia and Herzegovina Kosovo and Macedonia In accompanying texts he explores what lies behind the rituals and explains aspects of Sufi life and practice such as the position of women

Sufi ,2002 Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India Kelly

Pemberton,2010 Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India combines historical data with years of ethnographic fieldwork to investigate women s participation in the culture of Sufi shrines in India and the manner in which this participation both complicates and sustains traditional conceptions of Islamic womanhood Kelly Pemberton s fieldwork offers an assessment of the contemporary circumstances under which a woman may be recognized as a spiritual authority or guide despite official denial of such status and an examination of the discrepancies between the commonly held belief that women cannot perform in the public setting of shrines and her own observations of women doing precisely that She demonstrates that the existence of multiple models of master and disciple relationships have opened avenues for women to be recognized as spiritual authorities in their own right Specifically Pemberton explores the work of performance recitation and ritual mediation carried out by women connected with Sufi orders through kinship and spiritual ties and she maps shifting ideas about women s involvement in public ritual events in a variety of contexts circumstances and genres of performance She also highlights the private petitioning of saints the Prophet and God performed by poor women of low social standing in Bihar Sharif These women are often perceived as being exceptionally close to God yet are compelled to operate outside the public sphere of major shrines

The Power of Ritual Rachel Pollack,2000 For those seeking spiritual wholeness a sense of belonging and a connection to something greater than themselves The Power of Ritual explores the ways in which ritual can transform lives

Sufi Symbolism: -12. Spiritual states and mystical stations Javād Nūrbakhsh,1996 Contesting Rituals Andrew

Strathern, Pamela J. Stewart, 2005 This book fills a current need in Islamic Studies for a perspective on the nuanced investigation of ritual practices rather than a concentration on politicized forms of ideology. The essays in this volume are all written by scholarly specialists with first hand fieldwork experience. They take up a number of questions central to Islamic religion and ritual, focusing on rituals as practices of making identities. Identities are seen as changing in response to historical forces rather than as unchanging and rigid, and the overall vision of Islam is seen as pluralistic rather than monolithic. Several of the essays deal with gender relations, showing that women may in practice gain some prominence in local contexts beyond what might be allowed by reformist Islamicizing authorities. This is particularly the case when the focus is on varieties of Sufism. The essays also recognize that elements of conflict and contestation are commonly present in ritual contexts because of struggles over power, hence the title Contesting Rituals. Politics, gender relations and conflict between central reformists and local ritual specialists are all involved in these contestations. Overall the volume aims to show the multiplicity of Islam and to demonstrate how the themes of multiplicity and unity are played out continuously over time. The contributors to the volume are Kelly Pemberton (South Asia), Anna M. Gade (Indonesia), Susan J. Rasmussen (Africa), Alaine S. Hutson (Africa), Shampa Mazumdar and Sanjoy Mazumdar (USA), Sean R. Roberts (Uyghurstan) and Liyakat Takim (Iraq). The editors, Pamela Stewart and Andrew Strathern, provide an introductory overview. This book is part of the Ritual Studies Monograph Series, edited by Pamela J. Stewart and Andrew Strathern (Department of Anthropology, University of Pittsburgh). This volume is a useful addition to literature on Islam, ritual and identity. It successfully investigates the plasticity of Muslim ritual on multiple axes, providing historical perspectives, explorations of spatial transformation and experience, near ethnographic analyses (Journal of Anthropological Research, 2006). The contributions offer interesting insights into aspects of Muslim religious practice, their situatedness in wider social contexts and change over time. (The Journal of Social Anthropology) The reader comes away with an awareness of the complexities of being Muslim in today's world of globalization, mass migration, changing gender roles and continuing ethno-nationalist struggles. (The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland)
