Tempting Fate Paul C. Avey, 2019-11-15 Unpacking of the dynamics of conflict under conditions of nuclear monopoly Paul C Avey argues in Tempting Fate that the costs and benefits of using nuclear weapons create openings that weak nonnuclear actors can exploit Avey uses four case studies to show the key strategies available to nonnuclear states Iraqi decision making under Saddam Hussein in confrontations with the United States Egyptian leaders thinking about the Israeli nuclear arsenal during wars in 1969 70 and 1973 Chinese confrontations with the United States in 1950 1954 and 1958 and a dispute that never escalated to war the Soviet United States tensions between 1946 and 1948 that culminated in the Berlin Blockade Strategies employed include limiting the scope of the conflict holding chemical and biological weapons in reserve seeking outside support and leveraging international non use norms Avey demonstrates clearly that nuclear weapons cast a definite but limited shadow and while the world continues to face various nuclear challenges understanding conflict in nuclear monopoly will remain a pressing concern for analysts and policymakers Thanks to generous funding from Virginia Tech and its participation in TOME the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes available from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories Insight Turkey 2015 - Fall 2015 (Vol. 17, No. 4) , Last year was the year of elections in Turkey with two parliamentary elections and months long electoral campaigns that dominated the political agenda of the country The parliamentary elections of June 7 2015 brought an end to the AK Party's 12 year long era of parliamentary majority and single party government in Turkey Nevertheless the endeavors to form a coalition government could not be concluded successfully and another election appeared on the horizon The country was ruled by an AK Party led interim government and the elections were repeated five months later on November 1 2015 While close in time the two elections were quite distant with regard to the political contexts in which they were carried out and in their respective results The November elections witnessed a comeback for the AK Party which increased its votes by over 9 points with the addition of five million new votes in the ballot box Federal Probation ,1971 Strategic Culture and Weapons of Mass Destruction Jeannie L.
