Taiping Rebellion:

New Light on the History of the Taiping Rebellion Ssu-yü Teng, 1966      Taiping Rebellion Shunshin Chin, 2001

Taiping Rebel Xiucheng Li, Charles Anthony Curwen, 1976 Li Hsiu ch eng the Loyal Prince was the most important military leader on the rebel side during the last years of the Taiping Rebellion in China 1851-64 The Taiping Rebellion has been called the greatest popular revolt in modern history and it came remarkably close to toppling the Ch'ing empire some fifty years before it was finally overthrown in 1911 Captured in June 1864 by government forces Li Hsiu ch eng spent the final days before his inevitable execution writing a personal account of the Rebellion and his role in it His Deposition is the fullest narrative by a participant and an invaluable historical document The original manuscript of the Deposition was withheld by the government commander Tseng Kuo fan and his descendants and a shortened bowdlerized version prepared for publication Li himself was considered a great revolutionary hero in China until the Cultural Revolution when he was reassessed in a major public debate of considerable political significance      Historiography of the Taiping Rebellion Ssu-yü Teng, 1962-06-30 The Taiping Rebellion 1850-1864 was a pivotal event in modern Chinese history This civil war was fought between the established Manchu Qing dynasty in power and the millenarian movement of the Heavenly Kingdom of Peace

The Taiping Rebellion and the Western Powers Ssu-yü Teng, 1971      The Taiping Heavenly Kingdom Thomas H. Reilly, 2011-07-01 Occupying much of imperial China's Yangtze River heartland and costing more than twenty million lives the Taiping Rebellion 1851-64 was no ordinary peasant revolt What most distinguished this dramatic upheaval from earlier rebellions were the spiritual beliefs of the rebels The core of the Taiping faith focused on the belief that Shangdi the high God of classical China had chosen the Taiping leader Hong Xiuquan to establish his Heavenly Kingdom on Earth How were the Taiping rebels professing this new creed able to mount their rebellion and recruit multitudes of followers in their sweep through the empire Thomas Reilly argues that the Taiping faith although kindled by Protestant sources developed into a dynamic new Chinese religion whose conception of its sovereign deity challenged the legitimacy of the Chinese empire The Taiping rebels denounced the divine pretensions of the imperial title and the sacred character of the imperial office as blasphemous usurpations of Shangdi's title and position In place of the imperial institution the rebels called for restoration of the classical system of kingship Previous rebellions had declared their contemporary dynasties corrupt and therefore in need of revival the Taiping by contrast branded the entire imperial order blasphemous and in need of replacement In this study Reilly emphasizes the Christian elements of the Taiping faith showing how Protestant missionaries built on earlier Catholic efforts to translate Christianity into a Chinese idiom Prior studies of the rebellion have failed to appreciate how Hong Xiuquan's interpretation of Christianity connected the Taiping faith to an imperial Chinese cultural and religious context The Taiping Heavenly Kingdom shows how the Bible in particular a Chinese translation of the Old Testament profoundly influenced Hong and his followers leading them to understand the first three of the Ten Commandments as an indictment of the imperial order The rebels thus sought to destroy imperial culture along with its institutions and Confucian underpinnings all of which they regarded as blasphemous Strongly iconoclastic the Taiping followers smashed religious statues and imperially approved icons throughout the lands they conquered By such actions the Taiping Rebellion transformed at least for its followers but to some extent for all Chinese how Chinese people thought about religion the imperial title and office and the entire traditional imperial and Confucian order This book makes a major contribution to the study of the Taiping Rebellion and to our understanding of the ideology of both the rebels and the traditional imperial order they opposed It will appeal to scholars in the fields of Chinese history religion and culture and of Christian theology and church history

Taiping Rebellion Hourly History,2021-01-11 In 1837 Hong Xiuquan failed the notoriously difficult exam to gain entry to the Chinese Civil Service and suffered a nervous breakdown In a weakened state he had visions which he later interpreted to be messages from God telling him that he is the younger brother of Jesus Christ and therefore the second son of God By 1850 Hong had built an army challenged an empire and plunged China into the bloodiest civil war in human history one that lasted fourteen years and cost more lives than the First World War Discover a plethora of topics such as The Visions of Hong Xiuquan Fighting the Xiang Army Coups within the Taiping Kingdom The Reforms of the Shield King The Ever Victorious Army The End of the Taiping Rebellion Death by a Thousand Cuts And much more Explore the Taiping Rebellion one of the deadliest conflicts in history as religious revolutionaries challenged the Qing Dynasty in 19th century China This massive civil war reshaped the nation s future Perfect for history enthusiasts and students of global conflict Get your copy today and uncover the story of this monumental uprising Chinese Discourses on the Peasant, 1900-1949 Xiaorong

Han,2005-03-24 Xiaorong Han explores how Chinese intellectuals envisioned the peasantry and its role in changing society during the first half of the twentieth century Politically motivated intellectuals both Communist and non Communist believed that rural peasants and their villages would be at the heart of change during this long period of national crisis Nevertheless intellectuals saw themselves as the true shapers of change who would transform and use the peasantry Han uses intellectuals writings to provide a comprehensive look at their views of the peasantry He shows how intellectuals with varying politics created images of the peasant a supposed contemporary image and an ideal image of the peasant transformed for political ends how intellectuals theorized on the nature of Chinese rural life and how intellectuals conceived their own relationships with peasants Chinese Communist Studies of Modern Chinese History Albert Feuerwerker,S. Cheng,1961

Preliminary Material General Works The Ming and Ch ing Dynasties The Republic Economic History Intellectual and Cultural History Reference Works List of Publishers Index Taiping Rebellion Kelly Mass, The Taiping Rebellion alternatively termed the Taiping Civil War or the Taiping Revolution unfolded in China pitting the Manchu Qing dynasty against the Han Hakka led Taiping Heavenly Kingdom Spanning from 1850 to 1864 its echoes reverberated beyond with the final rebel faction quelled only in August 1871 post the fall of Tianjing The uprising sparked subsequent revolts notably the ephemeral

Heavenly Kingdom of the Great Mingshun in 1903 directly influenced by the Taiping. Despite the victory of the established Qing regime it came at a staggering cost both financially and politically navigating through one of history's deadliest civil conflicts which claimed an estimated 20 to 30 million lives. At the helm of the rebellion stood Hong Xiuquan, an ethnic Hakka who proclaimed himself the sibling of Jesus Christ. His ambitions were multifaceted, blending theological, nationalist, and political aspirations. Hong's vision extended beyond religious conversion; he aimed to dismantle the Manchu-led Qing Dynasty and engineer a radical overhaul of the nation's structure. Rather than merely targeting the ruling class, the Taipings sought to dismantle China's societal and ethical framework. Erecting the Heavenly Kingdom with Tianjing (now Nanjing) as its nucleus, they commanded sway over vast swathes of southern China, eventually encompassing a populace nearing 30 million.

Chinese Sources for the Taiping Rebellion, 1850-1864 James Chester Cheng, 1963      Tsêng Kuo-fan and the Taiping Rebellion William James Hail, 1962      Autumn in the Heavenly Kingdom Stephen R. Platt, 2012-07-01

In the early 1850s, during the waning years of the Qing dynasty, word spread of a major revolution brewing in the provinces. The leader of this movement, who called themselves the Taiping, was Hong Xiuquan, a failed civil servant who claimed to be the son of God and the brother of Jesus Christ. As the revolt grew and battles raged across the empire, all signs pointed to a Taiping victory and to the inauguration of a modern, industrialized, and pro-Western China. Soon, however, Britain and the United States threw their support behind the Qing, soon quashing the Taiping and rendering ineffective the years of bloodshed. The revolution had endured. In Autumn in the Heavenly Kingdom, Stephen Platt recounts the events of the rebellion and its suppression in spellbinding detail. It is an essential and enthralling history of the rise and fall of a movement that a century and a half ago might have launched China into the modern world.

China Michael Dillon, 2010-07-30

China's transformation in the last few decades has been perhaps the most remarkable and most controversial development in modern history. Barely a century removed from the struggling and outdated Qing Empire, China has managed to reinvent itself on an unprecedented scale, from Empire to Communist state to hybrid capitalist superpower. Yet the full implications of China's rapid march to modernity are not widely understood, particularly the effects of China's meteoric rise on the nation's many ethnic minorities.

China: A Modern History is the definitive guide to this complex contemporary phenomenon. Deng Xiaoping's 1980s policy of reform and opening, which saw China enter the world market, is only the most recent in a series of dramatic shifts that have transformed Chinese society over the past 150 years. China: A Modern History explores these contrasts in detail while also highlighting the enduring values which have informed Chinese identity for millennia.

Michael Dillon's China: A Modern History is essential reading for those interested in the past, present, and future course of one of the world's great nations. Clearly and compellingly written, this will stand as the best introduction to this spectacular and still unfinished story.

The Taiping Rebellion 1851-66 Ian Heath, 2010-08-03

The Taiping movement began as the Pai Shang ti Hui, the Society of God Worshippers, founded in Kwangsi province in 1846 by Hung Hsiu-chuan. A sickly individual of questionable sanity, Hung had become subject to visions which interpreted as demonstrating that he was Jesus Christ's Divine Younger Brother with God's mandate to govern China. This fascinating work by Ian Heath examines the organisation, dress and weapons of forces on both sides of the Taiping Rebellion, a conflict which saw the involvement of around 10 million troops during 15 years of conflict as many as 600 cities change hands time and time again and 20-30 million deaths.
