Women in Wonderland Elizabeth A Watry, 2023-08-03 Betsy Watry tells the tales of a dozen women some of whom had short lived adventures in Yellowstone National Park but most of whom spent decades as rangers scientists interpreters and entrepreneurs shaping the Park's physical and cultural landscape This is a wonderful hidden history full of surprising stories grounded in intensive research and written with charm Dr Mary Murphy historian and author of Hope in Hard Times For so long Yellowstone National Park has needed a book about the women who stood and today stand tall in its history At long last Elizabeth Watry has produced it Women across the nation should celebrate this book for its noteworthy contribution to women's history as we professional historians do Lee Whittlesey Park Historian National Park Service Yellowstone National Park To read about Yellowstone National Park too often means viewing it through the eyes and exploits of men By sharing the experiences and contributions of women who visited lived and worked in Yellowstone Elizabeth Watry places women front and center in the Park's wondrous history Women in Wonderland is sure to become a treasured resource Diane Smith author of Letters from Yellowstone

Reshaping Our National Parks and Their Guardians Kathy Mengak, 2012 This biography of the seventh director of the National Park Service brings to life one of the most colorful powerful and politically astute people to hold this position George B Hartzog Jr served during an exciting and volatile era in American history Appointed in 1964 by Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall he benefited from a rare combination of circumstances that favored his vision which was congenial with both President Lyndon Johnson's Great Society and Udall's robust environmentalism Hartzog led the largest expansion of the National Park System in history and developed social programs that gave the Service new complexion During his nine year tenure the system grew by seventy two units totaling 27 million acres including not just national parks but historical and archaeological monuments and sites recreation areas seashores riverways memorials and cultural units celebrating minority experiences in America In addition Hartzog sought to make national parks relevant and responsive to the nation's changing needs Lincoln's Greatcoat Reignette G.

Chilton, 2019-04-11 Brooks Brothers crafted Abraham Lincoln's greatcoat in honor of the president's second inauguration The coat's wool was finer than cashmere Its quilted silk lining bore an embroidered banner that read One Country One Destiny Lincoln wore the garment when he was assassinated on April 14 1865 After his death Mrs Lincoln gave the greatcoat to a faithful doorkeeper The coat was returned to Ford's Theatre more than a century after her bequest but not before it underwent a mysterious journey This book recounts that journey as a reminder of the 16th president and his call to bind up wounds and care for others The Content Trap Bharat Anand, 2016-10-18 My favorite book of the year Doug McMillon CEO

Wal Mart Stores Harvard Business School Professor of Strategy Bharat Anand presents an incisive new approach to digital transformation that favors fostering connectivity over focusing exclusively on content NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY BLOOMBERG Companies everywhere face two major challenges today getting noticed and getting paid To confront these obstacles Bharat Anand examines a range of businesses around the world from The New York Times to The Economist from Chinese Internet giant Tencent to Scandinavian digital trailblazer Schibsted and from talent management to the future of education Drawing on these stories and on the latest research in economics strategy and marketing this refreshingly engaging book reveals important lessons smashes celebrated myths and reorients strategy Success for flourishing companies comes not from making the best content but from recognizing how content enables customers connectivity it comes not from protecting the value of content at all costs but from unearthing related opportunities close by and it comes not from mimicking competitors best practices but from seeing choices as part of a connected whole Digital change means that everyone today can reach and interact with others directly We are all in the content business But that comes with risks that Bharat Anand teaches us how to recognize and navigate Filled with conversations with key players and in depth dispatches from the front lines of digital change The Content Trap is an essential new playbook for navigating the turbulent waters in which we find ourselves Praise for The Content Trap A masterful and thought provoking book that has reshaped my understanding of content in the digital landscape Ariel Emanuel co CEO WME IMG The Content Trap is a book filled with stories of businesses from music companies to magazine publishers that missed connections and could never escape the narrow views that had brought them past success But it is also filled with stories of those who made strategic choices to strengthen the links between content and returns in their new master plans The book is a call to clear thinking and reassessing why things are the way they are The Wall Street Journal Yellowstone Ranger Jerry Mernin,2023-08-03 Jerry Mernin s distinguished career in the National Park Service spanned four decades five national parks and a remarkable 32 year stay in Yellowstone the park he loved and never left In his long awaited memoir Mernin takes readers behind the scenes to learn firsthand what it s like to be a great park ranger Along the way he shares a lifetime of exciting adventures including dangerous rescues remote backcountry patrols and multiple heart pounding encounters with grizzly bears Thoroughly entertaining this book also provides a valuable inside look at park operations from law enforcement to bear management
