Take It Off A Male Strip Flip:

Strip Show Katherine Liepe-Levinson, 2003-09-01 This book offers an account of an unprecedented North American study of contemporary female and male strip shows. It particularly focuses on the contradictory sex roles, cultural positions and performance practices of straight strip shows during their second heyday in the early 1990s. Katherine Liepe Levinson's research took her to over seventy different strip bars, clubs, theatres and sex emporiums ranging from elaborate lap dancing and couch dancing gentlemen's clubs in New York, Houston and San Francisco to Peoria's onetime duplex cabaret where women strip for men downstairs and men for women upstairs to the nightclubs of Montreal where female and male performers displayed the Full Monty. Liepe Levinson's intriguing comprehensive study concentrates on the cultural and theatrical elements of the strip shows themselves, including the geographic locations and interior designs of the clubs, the choreography and costumes of the dancers and the all-important participation of the audience. She draws upon a variety of methodologies as well as interviews with performers to explore how the strip show's cultural and theatrical aspects simultaneously uphold and break traditional sex roles. Her findings readily complicate several of the most prominent and prevalent theories about sexual representation, gender and desire.

Take it Off! Jacques Toulouse, 1982 The War of the Sexes G. A. Mohr, 2012-10 This book seeks to restore a little balance to The War of the Sexes that feminists have been waging openly for about two hundred years with increasing success, one regrettable result being 50% divorce rates in the decadent West. Chapter 1 discusses the feminist movement and Chapter 2 discusses how women capture men. Chapters 3 to 7 discuss the many physical, chemical and sociological differences between the sexes ranging from the inborn maternal instinct to those arising from their different upbringing. In Chapters 8 to 13 the strengths and weaknesses of women in our decadent societies are discussed, including exploitation of women in the consumer society and the growing problem of teen and single mothers. In Chapters 14 to 18 the way in which women are beginning to take over the workforce, management and politics at the expense of men is discussed, whilst in Chapter 19 the key reasons for the overall moral and financial decay of Western Civilization are discussed. Finally, in Chapters 20 to 25, an attempt is made to make some constructive suggestions to remedy some of the problems posed by moral and financial decline in the West. Thus, it is suggested that marital type relationships should always be a carefully chosen and communicative and constructive partnership between compatible like-minded people with sound career paths and life goals. The penultimate chapter suggests how those couples that do have children can make them smarter in turn, helping keep the family happier and more successful. The final chapter discusses contact hypothesis and mere exposure research, an understanding of which might be useful in reducing the War of the Sexes and also the many ethnic conflicts that plague the world today.
