Take Joy:

Joy in Medicine? Eve Shapiro, 2020-11-02 Eve Shapiro has been writing about patient centered care physician patient communication and relationships between doctors and their patients since 2007 In Joy in Medicine What 100 Healthcare Professionals Have to Say about Job Satisfaction Dissatisfaction Burnout and Joy Eve turns her attention to those on the healthcare delivery side of this sacred interaction These healthcare professionals share their enthusiasm joys frustrations disappointments insights advice stories fears and pain explaining how it looks and feels to work in healthcare today no matter who you are where you work or what your position is in the organizational hierarchy The healthcare professionals who provide patient care deserve our collective interest in their humanity Without some insight into who they are and the forces with which they struggle every day we cannot fully appreciate the obstacles to providing the care we all want for ourselves and our families during the best of times let alone in the uncertain times that lie ahead Passionate Joy Dr. James Evans McReynolds, 2006-01-26 Passionate Joy connects the psychological and spiritual understanding of our least discussed human emotion This book reflects the dawn of a revolutionary approach to living Norman Vincent Peale anointed Jim McReynolds as minister of joy to the world The most important characteristic of a minister of joy is humility This book teaches people the purpose of our lives is to create an atmosphere for joy and miracles to happen Life is difficult Building a wealth of joy enables us to know happiness Readers will enter the joy of the Lord as they reflect upon their own joy This book can be used as a text for study groups Questions for reflections are included at the end of each chapter This book was envisioned during studies at Vanderbilt University and the University of Oxford in England The material has been shared during a lifetime of weekend retreats conferences and seminars for churches schools workplaces and community groups

Singers, Heroes, and Gods in the Odyssey Charles Segal, 2001 One of the special charms of the Odyssey according to Charles Segal is the way it transports readers to fascinating places Yet despite the appeal of its narrative the Odyssey is fully understood only when its style design and mythical patterns are taken into account as well Bringing a new richness to interpretation of this epic Segal looks closely at key forms of social and personal organization which Odysseus encounters in his voyages Segal also considers such topics as the relationship between bard and audience the implications of the Odyssey's self consciousness about its own poetics and Homer's treatment of the nature of poetry Joy in the Morning Patsy Evans, 2018-11-15 Joy in the Morning describes the pilgrimage of Ann Marie Jernigan from her successful pursuit of a career in musical theater through a heartrending family crisis involving spousal abuse divorce and the death of a daughter born with physical and neurological disorders Ann repeatedly cries out to God for answers as she struggles through periods of spiritual turmoil and doubt Ultimately her faith is restored when her perspective on life becomes God centered rather than self centered It is then that she discovers God's plan for her life Great Joy Dwight Lyman Moody, 1877 Oneness Philip J. Ivanhoe, 2017-11-01 At the center of a constellation of key ideas in East Asian philosophical traditions there lies a conception of oneness among human beings Human beings are intricately and inextricably intertwined and share a common destiny with other people creatures and things The ramifications of this idea are wide reaching and resonate with important debates and concerns in contemporary Western philosophy but many at the forefront of their fields in the West are unaware of the fundamental shift in perspective that might be available to them One of Ivanhoe's aims in this work is to challenge the dominant paradigm of hyper individualism which still enjoys a commanding position in a great deal of contemporary theory and practice in the humanities and social sciences and to describe and advocate for an alternative conception and sense of self world and the relationship between them In particular Ivanhoe who has an extensive background in and has published influential work on virtue ethics and Asian philosophy investigates the implications of oneness for conceptions of the self virtue and human happiness Through the lens of oneness he explores topics such as conceptions of the self selfishness and self centeredness virtues spontaneity and happiness drawing support from wide ranging interdisciplinary sources Rather than starting from the standpoint of Western philosophy and then reaching out to Asian philosophy from a distance Ivanhoe advances a thesis drawn from East Asian sources and explicitly challenges the theoretical asymmetry that is characteristic of most comparative study which often simply applies Western theories to non Western material

Learning Disability Gordon Grant, Paul Ramcharan, Margaret Flynn, Malcolm Richardson, 2010-05-16 With its spread of chapters covering key issues across the life cycle this text has established itself as the foundational primer for those studying the lived experiences of people with learning disabilities and their families and outcomes achieved through services and support systems Recognising learning disability as a lifelong disability this accessible book is structured around the life cycle The second edition is refreshed and expanded to include seven new chapters covering Aetiology Breaking news about disability and early intervention Transition to adulthood The sexual lives of women Employment Personalisation People with hidden identities With contributions from respected figures from a range of disciplines the book draws heavily upon multidisciplinary perspectives and is based on the latest research and evidence for practice The text is informed by medical social and legal models of learning disability exploring how learning disability is produced reproduced and understood Extensive use is made of real life case studies designed to bring theory values policy and practice to life Narrative chapters describe in the words of people with learning disabilities themselves their lives and aspirations They helpfully show readers the kinds of roles played by families advocates and services in supporting people with learning disabilities New exercises and questions have been added to encourage discussion and reflection on practice Learning Disability is core reading for students entering health and social care professions to work with people with learning disabilities It is a compelling reference text for practitioners as it squarely addresses the challenges facing people with learning disability their loved ones and the people supporting them Contributors Dawn Adams Kathryn Almack Dorothy Atkinson Nigel Beail Christine Bigby Alison Brammer Jacqui Brewster Hilary Brown Jennifer Clegg Lesley Cogher Helen Combes Clare Connors Bronagh Crawley Eric Emerson Margaret Flynn
