Sub A Study In Witchcraft:

Coral Gardens and Their Magic: A Study of the Methods of Tilling the Soil and of Agricultural Rites in the Trobriand Islands Bronislaw Malinowski, 2013-09 As part of Papua New Guinea the Trobriant Islands are located in a bordering sea of the Pacific Ocean At the beginning of the 20th century the anthropologist Bronislaw Malinowski was one of the first to explore the archipelago in the South Sea and its inhabitants In the context of his work he discovered that Freud's psychoanalytic universality thesis regarding the Oedipus complex is not true for the islanders In this first volume out of three Malinowski deals with the tribal economics and social organizations as well as the trobriandan gardening techniques and the magic within this kind of work

A Worldbuilder's Guide to Magic Brent A. Stypczynski, 2021-10-25 Constructing a functional system of magic that helps readers suspend disbelief is a crucial part of worldbuilding in the fantasy genres Yet creating a believable compelling and original fictional universe can be daunting To help inspire writers this guide provides an overview of how magic has been understood in history and used in myth legend and modern fiction Different forms of magic are explored and a broad range of stories from Nordic myths to modern novels are described and referenced Discussion explores how magic as a concept shapes and is shaped by fictional worlds and societies Personalized Truth Subscription Service ,

Male Witches in Early Modern Europe Lara Apps, Andrew Gow, 2003-05-02 This book critiques historians' assumptions about witch hunting as well as their explanations for this complex and perplexing phenomenon It shows that large numbers of men were accused of witchcraft in their own right in some regions more men were accused than women The authors insist on the centrality of gender tradition and ideas about witches in the construction of the witch as a dangerous figure They challenge the marginalization of male witches by feminist and other historians

Creating Marketing Magic and Innovative Future Marketing Trends Maximilian Stieler, 2017-01-06 This volume includes the full proceedings from the 2016 Academy of Marketing Science AMS Annual Conference held in Orlando Florida entitled Creating Marketing Magic and Innovative Future Marketing Trends The marketing environment continues to be dynamic As a result researchers need to adapt to the ever changing scene Several macro level factors continue to play influential roles in changing consumer lifestyles and business practices Key factors among these include the increasing use of technology and automation while juxtaposed by nostalgia and back to the roots marketing trends At the same time though as marketing scholars we are able to access emerging technology with greater ease to undertake more rigorous research practices The papers presented in this volume aim to address these issues by providing the most current research from various areas of marketing research such as consumer behavior marketing strategy marketing theory services marketing advertising branding and many more Founded in 1971 the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory research and practice Among its services to members and the community at large the Academy offers conferences congresses and symposia that attract
