Succession To High Office On Botswana Three Case Studies:

Succession to High Office in Botswana Jack Parson, 1990 This book examines the process through which the mantle of leadership passed from one leader to another in Botswana It concerns the succession to high office in Botswana over the course of more than half a century from the colonial time to the present Three case studies explore the relationship between the British colonial authorities and the tribal leaders in affirming the legitimacy of the tribal chiefs of the Bangwato tribe in the former Bechuanaland protectorate The studies examine the succession crises of the Bangwato first in 1925 and again between 1948 to 1953 and the political changes in Botswana up to the last few years Extensive excerpts from the Botswana National Archives contained in the appendices fully support the text Book jacket

The Indigenization of Pali Meters in Thai Poetry Thomas J. Hudak, 1990 During the Ayutthaya period in Thailand 1350 1767 a group of meters based upon specific types and arrangements of syllables became a significant part of the Thai literary corpus Known as chan in Thai literature these meters and the stanzas created from them were adapted and transformed so that they corresponded in structure to other Thai verse forms Although still used in compositions today these meters reached their greatest popularity during the mid and late Ayutthaya period and the late nineteenth to early twentieth centuries This study of the Thai chan meters contends that Thai linguistic constraints and poetic principles determined the transformation of the Pali meters and stanzas into their Thai counterparts Disproving the frequent claims that the old chan compositions ignored the sequencing of the particular syllable types required by the meters the author determines why the meters became popular only during certain eras and just what the aesthetic conditions were that nurtured the use of the meters

The Western Bahr Al-Ghazal Under British Rule, 1898-1956 Ahmad Alawad Sikainga, 1991 Western Bahr al Ghazal is perhaps one of the least known places in Africa Yet this remote part of the Republic of Sudan can be regarded as a historical barometer registering major developments in the history of the Nile valley In the nineteenth century the region became one of the most active slave exporting zones in Africa The area is distinguished from the rest of southern Sudan by its veneer of Muslim influence and an Arabic pidgin British officials regarded it as a Muslim enclave and in the twentieth century western Bahr al Ghazal became a laboratory in which the British colonial administration applied one of its most controversial policies in the Sudan the so called Southern Policy Several decades of colonial rule failed to establish any significant links between the western Bahr al Ghazal and the world economy It is hoped that this book will contribute to the understanding of the general impact of colonialism on rural societies in the southern Sudan and the
