Sufi Essays:

Sufi Essays Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 1972-01-01 This book combines scholarly research into certain aspect of Sufi doctrines and history with a penetrating account of the spiritual and metaphysical message and significance of Sufism as a living spiritual tradition. In an original discussion unlike anything that has appeared before in studies of Sufism the author places special accent on the pertinence of Sufi teachings to the most acute contemporary problems. The book addresses itself to both the ever increasing Western public interested in Sufism and to the Western educated Muslim interested in his own spiritual heritage. Dr Nasr draws on his intimate knowledge of the Sufi literature in Arabic and Persian as well as his first hand knowledge of Sufi tradition itself to produce this further volume in his numerous studies on the different facets of Islam.

Schuyler, 1900 Islamic Experience in Contemporary Thought Syed Vahiduddin, 1986 A Jungian Approach to Literature Bettina Liebowitz Knapp, 1984 This book is the first to apply systematically Jungian psychology to the study of literature throughout the ages. The ten essays are purposefully different illustrating the universality of Jungian archetypal analysis and criticism. The book has been divided into seven sections the first five follow chronological order from Euripides to Goethe and finally Yeats the sixth and seventh are presented separately because they explore unique psychological experiences. Each essay is divided into two parts an ectypal and an archetypal analysis of the works discussed. The ectypal section presents a brief historical summary of the period acquainting readers with appropriate facts concerning the author's environment. The archetypal analysis however is the most important aspect of A Jungian Approach to Literature. Archetypes contained in the collective unconscious exist at the deepest level within the subliminal realm. They are made manifest in archetypal primordial images experienced in such universal motifs as the Great Mother the Spiritual Father Transformation the Self and others. The Jungian archetypal approach to literature acts as a broadening force in the life experience.
