

The background of the book cover is a Romantic-style landscape painting. It depicts a dense forest with a stream flowing through it. In the foreground, a large, dark, gnarled tree trunk leans over the water. Two figures, dressed in 19th-century outdoor attire, stand on a large, flat rock in the middle of the stream. One figure is holding a long staff or pole. The background shows a misty, mountainous landscape with a waterfall visible in the distance. The overall mood is mysterious and naturalistic.

Taboo Magic Spirits A Study Of Primitive Elements In Roman Religion:

Taboo, Magic, Spirits Eli Edward Burriss, 2015-01-09 A study of primitive elements in Roman religion this deals with such topics as witchcraft taboo incantations magic and the superstitions that affected every part of everyday life Thoroughly well researched while avoiding being heavy reading Even Christians will find this interesting reading as the sections on prayer blood sacrifices and raising the hands sets the contextual backdrop for much of the New Testament Quote from willyfogg com Table of Contents PREFACE CHAPTER I MANA MAGIC AND ANIMISM CHAPTER II POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE MANA TABOO CHAPTER III MISCELLANEOUS TABOOS CHAPTER IV MAGIC ACTS THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES CHAPTER V REMOVING EVILS BY MAGIC ACTS CHAPTER VI INCANTATION AND PRAYER CHAPTER VII NATURALISM AND ANIMISM In the early stage of his development man has no conception of a superior being on whom he is dependent whose will he must win but he believes that by performing some mysterious action usually imitating the action desired and often assisted by an incantation or charm whether it be an amulet for defense or a talisman for offense he can force the desired result This mysterious action and incantation passing under the name of magic arises as we have seen from a curious twist in thinking which leads a person to believe that the effect is the same thing as the cause that something like a person or thing is the person or thing itself that similarity in thought is similarity in fact and that something which has touched a person is still in contact with him Taboo, Magic, Spirits Eli Edward Burriss, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1931 edition Taboo, Magic, Spirits Eli Edward Burriss, 2022-10-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

Magika Hiera Christopher A. Faraone, Dirk Obbink, 1997-02-13 This collection challenges the tendency among scholars of ancient Greece to see magical and religious ritual as mutually exclusive and to ignore magical practices in Greek religion The contributors survey specific bodies of archaeological epigraphical and papyrological evidence for magical practices in the Greek world and in each case determine whether the traditional dichotomy between magic and religion helps in any way to conceptualize the objective features of the evidence examined Contributors include Christopher A Faraone J H M Strubbe H S Versnel Roy Kotansky John Scarborough Samuel Eitrem Fritz Graf John J Winkler Hans Dieter Betz and C R Phillips

Religion and Belief Christopher T Green, Malcolm Heath, Fabio Serranito, 2014-05-02 Religion and Belief A Moral Landscape is a collection of essays from the 4th Annual Postgraduate Interdisciplinary Conference at the Department of Classics University of Leeds The book collates a wide range of issues and initiates a discussion on the nuances and multifaceted concepts of religion and belief The topics range from ancient Greek religion and philosophy through the Roman world and early Judeo Christian beliefs to modern burial practices and 21st century New Atheism By presenting religion and belief in this macrocosmic landscape simple conceptions and caricatures of religion and belief are shown to be misleading and ultimately redundant This book engages with the complex and multifaceted nature of religion and belief across time

Rethinking Greek Religion Julia Kindt, 2012-08-02 Explores polis religion a leading paradigm in current studies on ancient Greek religion and shows ways of moving beyond it

Wolves of Rome Krešimir Vuković, 2022-12-05 The study is a fresh interpretation of the Roman foundation myth and one of the most important Roman festivals the Lupercalia an annual celebration of youth and sexuality by Roman men and women Written with clarity and force the book spans the whole of Roman history and takes the Lupercalia back to its Indo European roots by presenting clear parallels between Roman and Indian traditions

Saint Thecla Rosie Andrious, 2020-09-17 This volume questions the prevailing female empowering interpretation of Thecla in the Acts of Paul and Thecla Rosie Andrious examines the way that Thecla is voyeuristically paraded and subjected to a kind of sado erotic torture and demonstrates how this perception clashes with any notion that she is presented as a positive role model for a woman Rather Andrious sets this discourse about female self control and chastity over against the wider narrative of Christian men struggling against the invasive violence of Rome and suggests that the victimized voyeuristic female representation of Thecla has very little to do with women and is rather a complex literary text that represents a power struggle between men The ideological function of Thecla is therefore as a constructed body that transcends its natural feminine weakness Andrious thus provides an original interpretative framework for understanding Thecla's representation and suggests a completely new way of seeing the saint
