Making Sense of Emotion Frank John Ninivaggi,2017-08-31 Children not shown tools to develop emotional intelligence fail emotionally and socially Basic empathy skills are absent In adult life employment and occupational advancement are less likely Making Sense of Emotion grasps the Yale integrative emotional intelligence ability model Adding key missing elements this book unlocks its potential to trigger emotion performance utilization in real life and real time The epidemic of overusing medications substance use disorders addiction drug overdoses even global doping in sports reflects emotional malaise Emotional illiteracy is one underlying cause and demands innovative emotional intelligence Written by a psychiatrist this volume supplies literacy tools a vivid action language showing how emotions unfold as personal dramas Emotions are our first language the mother tongue infants and children are lived by Emotional awareness is refined emotional intelligence This book clearly defines emotions feelings affects moods and the social emotional competencies needed to understand and build emotional awareness Skills take shape resulting in unfolding self attunement In real time emotional intelligence is effective emotional performance The missing link between the two is the application of emotion regulation in real life knowledge in the head displayed in skilled everyday behavior Innovative ideas in this book explain how to apply this emotional hygiene fitness program to benefit children and adults     Catalogue Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology. Social Science Goes to War Montgomery McFate,Janice H. Laurence,2015-01-11 This volume addresses themes of enduring importance for US national security such as the role of US forces in nation building challenges of interagency coordination innovation during wartime and the larger strategic issues of the need for socio cultural knowledge in American foreign policy This book gives the reader insight into the growth and development of HTS the largest single investment ever made by the Department of Defense in applied social science This book also conveys what the experience of working on a small team in a combat zone was really like both good and bad     The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association. Transnational Representations James Wicks,2014-11-01 Transnational Representations focuses on a neglected period in Taiwan film scholarship the golden age of the 1960s and 1970s which saw innovations in plot theme and genre as directors highlighted the complexities of Taiwan s position in the world Combining a concise overview of Taiwan film history with analysis of representative Taiwan films the book reveals the internal and external struggles Taiwan experienced in its search for global identity This cross disciplinary study adopts a transnational approach which presents Taiwan s film industry as one that is intertwined with that of mainland China challenging previous accounts that present the two industries as parallel yet separate The book also offers productive comparisons between Taiwan films and contemporary films elsewhere representing the politics of migration and between the antecedents of new cinema movements and Taiwan New Cinema of the 1980s

James Wicks's book offers a most nuanced sensible and timely account of the 1960s to 1970s Taiwan films in terms of plot theme language and generic innovations. It zooms in on works by such prominent directors as Li Xing, Bai Jingrui, Song Cunshou and others, highlighting local, regional and transnational flows while not losing sight of the complexities in the island state's identity and modernity formation processes. Ping hui Liao, University of California San Diego. Wicks's engaging study forges a comparative approach to Taiwanese cinema that is enlivened and inspired by the possibility of close reading, historical research and interviews. Most importantly, it draws attention to seminal films so rarely discussed in the English language. Brian Hu, artistic director of the San Diego Asian Film Festival. Silent but Deadly, Kirsten Bell, 2022-10-31. A fabulous read. Gillian Tett, author of Anthro Vision: How Anthropology Can Explain Business and Life. Learned but witty. Nigel Barley, author of The Innocent Anthropologist: Notes from a Mud Hut. An entertaining anthropological tour through the big answers to life's little questions. Why do farts evoke laughter and disgust? Is the aversion to the left hand universal? Are dogs really humankind's best friend? Why do we tip wait staff but not teachers? In Silent but Deadly: The Underlying Cultural Patterns of Everyday Behaviour, Kirsten Bell, an anthropologist who has lived in five countries on four continents and learned about cultural gaffes by constantly committing them, places our everyday behaviours under the microscope. Boldly going where no anthropologist has gone before, no topic is too small or insignificant for Bell's attention, whether it's washing machines in kitchens, buying rounds at the pub, toilet paper or swearing. The kind of book Jared Diamond might write if he was more concerned with the meanings of bodily emissions than the collapse of civilizations. Silent but Deadly deciphers the cultural patterns that underlie our everyday quirks, foibles and habits.

Author-title Catalog, University of California, Berkeley, Library, 1963. The Eclipse of Community Mental Health and Erich Lindemann, David G. Satin, 2020-09-03. These volumes make new contributions to the history of psychiatry and society in three ways. First, they propose a theory of values and ideology influencing the evolution of psychiatry and society in recurring cycles and survey the history of psychiatry in recent centuries in light of this theory. Second, they review the waxing prominence and waning of Community Mental Health as an example of a segment of this cyclical history of psychiatry. Third, they provide the first biography of Erich Lindemann, one of the founders of social and community psychiatry and explore the interaction of the prominent contributor with the historical environment and the influence this has on both. We return to the issue of values and ideologies as influences on psychiatry, whether or not it is accepted as professionally proper. This is intended to stimulate self reflection and the acceptance of the values, sources of ideology, their effect on professional practice and the effect of values based ideology on the community in which psychiatry practices. The books will be of interest to psychiatric teachers and practitioners, health planners and socially responsible citizens.
