Tacita Dean Sevens:

Tacita Dean George Baker, Annie Rana, 2025-05-20 A highly anticipated and richly illustrated anthology of essays on the work of artist Tacita Dean. This volume explores the deeply influential work of Tacita Dean, recognized increasingly as one of the key artists of our times. Emerging initially as part of the generation of the so-called Young British Artists in the 1990s, Dean has reinvented the manner in which artists use analogue mediums such as drawing, photography and film, prompting major questions in her work around the issues of time, memory and history. Dean's films embrace long takes that achieve a near photographic stillness, they have been dedicated to obsolescent objects or stranded buildings, failed quests and extraordinary figures, usually other artists and writers, nearing the end of their lives. But Dean's contemplative films have been rigorously reinvented as a form over the course of her career and linked to a widening series of projects involving writing, chalk drawings, found photographs, dance and theater. This anthology explores the artist's expansive practice, gathering essays and interviews by authors from an array of disciplines, including art criticism, philosophy, literature and film. Spanning twenty-five years of the artist's career, the volume includes writings by George Baker, Douglas Crimp, Brian Dillon, Briony Fer, Hal Foster, Mark Godfrey, Louise Hornby, Rosalind Krauss, Elisabeth Lebovici, Jean Luc Nancy, Tamara Trodd, Marina Warner, Peter Wollen, and the artist herself.

Tacita Dean Tacita Dean, Sean Rainbird, Mark Godfrey, 2005 Born in 1965 in Canterbury, Tacita Dean trained at Falmouth College of Arts and the Slade School of Art. A leading artist of her generation, Dean makes films, prints and drawings, and this publication will highlight recent projects as well as key works drawn from the Tate Collection.

Fascinated with the medium of film for its close relationship to the passing of time, Dean explores the possibilities it presents in the construction of narratives. Having an affinity with nature, her themes often consider our instinctive and psychological responses to elemental forces. For example, her preoccupation with the sea as something unfathomably vast yet traversed over centuries, by explores, has prompted a series of works intuiting the emotional histories of certain key figures, such as Donald Crowhurst, the failed transglobal mariner. More recent films have begun to feature people.

Constructing New Berlin Phoenix Art Museum, 2006 Berlin is poised to emerge as one of the world's most exciting centers of contemporary art. As artists from different countries flock to the new capital of re-unified Germany, its major museums are undergoing a massive renovation while grant programmes and inexpensive studio space are giving new talents the chance to create and display their art. Published in conjunction with a major exhibition at the Phoenix Museum of Art, this catalogue is the first comprehensive survey of the artistic renaissance of post-war Berlin. Many of the works which include paintings, sculpture, photography, film, installation, sound and performance art were completed in this century. In addition to colour illustrations of each of the works, this volume includes essays on the Berlin art scene, the city's recent architecture and what the future may hold for this exciting nexus of creativity.

Haunted Jennifer Blessing, Nat Trotman, Peggy Phelan, Lisa Saltzman, Nancy Spector, 2010. Much of contemporary photography and video seems haunted by the past by ghostly apparitions that are reanimated in reproductive media as well as in live performance and the virtual world. By using dated, past or quasi-extinct stylistic devices, subject matter and technologies, this art embodies a melancholic longing for an otherwise unrecuperable past. Haunted examines the myriad ways photographic imagery is incorporated into recent practice and in the process underscores the unique power of reproductive media while documenting a widespread contemporary obsession with documenting the past. The works included in the exhibition range from individual photographs and photographic series to sculptures and paintings that incorporate photographic elements to videos, film, performance and site-specific installations. Drawn primarily from the Guggenheim's collection, Haunted features recent acquisitions many of which will be exhibited by the museum for the first time.
